Immersive Tales

Presents:

Stories written by the children from years 2 and 5

Carlton Road Academy

Boston, Lincolnshire

July 2023

The authors wrote these stories in:

Fydell House, Boston

Acknowledgements:

The stories in this book were written by children attending Immersive Tales' story writing workshops in July 2023. Immersive Tales' mission is to support children's developing imaginations and literacy skills through story writing.

Many people were involved in the making of this book. Firstly, the children from Carlton Road Academy who worked really hard and with great enthusiasm and the brilliant teachers who walked them to Fydell House and stayed throughout the workshops to support them.

The staff of Fydell House who welcomed the project into their space and supported the workshops all the way:

Jodie and Bronwen

and to Sue who was willing to hear about Immersive Tales' ideas and got straight behind the project.

The Immersive Tales team is:

Dr Noel White – Workshop Development and Lead Tutor

Iulia-Daria Voinea – Assistant Tutor and Editor

Sarah Cunningham – Chair of Trustees and Editor

Julie Gilbert – Trustee and Proof Reader

Niz Smith – Trustee and Editor

Support for the workshops was also provided with sound effects and music by Mark Hildred and Andrew Cleaton.

Contents:

	Page
Evil Invades Candyland:	5
Animals on the Loose:	11
Box Stealer:	12
Captain Boxer Boy	14
Charlotte & the Mysterious City of Fydell:	18
Death has a Shadow:	19
Did Joel steal the King's Crown?:	21
Do not Die in your Mind:	23
Ellie and the Mysterious Island:	25
Fantasy Forest:	27
Forgotten:	29
His Goal is:	30
How Good is He?	31
Jacob the Immortal Man:	32
Nightmare Neighbour:	33
One Thousand Deaths in 1 Second:	36
Peppa Pig Steals Money:	39
Revenge:	40
Sam Shooter Bank Thief:	42
That One Boy:	44
The Basement Creeps:	46
The Big Mystery:	49
The Biggest Find of Treasure:	50
The Curse of the Hotel:	51
The Demon Killer:	54
The Dragon and the Lost Crystal:	56
The Egyptian Mystery:	57
The Endless Haunted Graveyard:	59
The Fisherman:	61

The Girl who Disappeared: 62
The Horror House: 63
The Horror Zoo Adventure: 64
The Hyson High School Apocalypse: 67
The Lab Accident: 69
The Last Text: 70
The Little Group: 72
The Lost Mystery: 75
The Man who got Caught Red Handed: 78
The Man who Stole Love: 79
The Mystery Strikes: 81
The Penguin Mystery: 82
The Scary Girl: 87
The South West Disaster: 88
The Story about the Hotel: 90
The Story of Amaya: 92
The Story of Football: 95
The Two Brothers: 96
The Unsolved Crime of the Dead Men: 97
The War between Parasites and Humans: 99
The Weird Wedding: 100
The Worst of the Worst: 102
True Colours: 104
War of the Worlds 2005: 108
Where is the Treasure? 110
Where's the Heart Gone? 111
Who was the Murderer of Richard: 113
World War II Breakout: 114
You are Safe with Me: 115

Evil Invades Candyland

by the Children in Year 2

Candyland is a lovely place, the trees are giant lollipops, the rivers run with chocolate and all the flowers are sweets. There are marshmallow mushrooms and even candy fishes.

People who care for children will tell them not to eat too many sweets or chocolate as it will damage their teeth, but the magical thing about Candyland is that you can eat everything and children's teeth get stronger.

Candyland is the home of the heroes of our story, two foxes called Handel and Wendy. They run a restaurant where you can eat such delights as chocolate stew and candy salad. They used to just be friends with all the other foxes and, mostly, they were friends with their teachers too but none of the other animals were their friends as all the different animals were just friends with their own kind.

One day someone told Handel and Wendy that the Evil Robot Fox King, who was called Monster Dee, had come to Candyland. They hoped that this was not true as they did not want a king who was evil ruling over them and they were worried about what sort of evil he would get up to.

Foxes usually move around very quietly so you do not hear them coming. The foxes knew the rumour about Monster Dee was true when they saw a giant fox that was clanking along and making lots of noise – only a robot would be that noisy.

CLANK! he went and then CHOMP! and in one huge bite a tree disappeared.

In its place a lettuce appeared. Not a nice, candy lettuce but a green, vegetable one - the kind that even the teachers in Candyland did not like. It was not even a nice fresh one but a bit wilted and smelly.

Another CLANK!

Another CHOMP!

Another candy tree disappeared and another horrible lettuce appeared.

All the foxes tried to hide behind the trees and watch what was going on without being seen but the Evil Robot Fox King was chomping through the trees so fast that soon they would have nowhere to hide and even a small fox cannot hide behind a lettuce.

“What can we do?” said Handel to Wendy, “if the Evil Robot Fox King carries on like this, Candyland will be ruined.”

“We must stop him,” answered Wendy, “but I’m not sure how, even if all the foxes try to fight him, we may not be enough to overcome him!”

“We must gather together some other animals and ask them to help us as they all love Candyland too.”

They decided to contact the Underground Hedgehogs.

The Hedgehogs were a bit suspicious at first but when they scrambled out of their burrows and saw for themselves what was going on, they agreed to help.

“We need weapons,” said Handel, “but what can we use? We usually spend our days eating, not fighting.”

“I know!” said the leader of the hedgehogs, “we can use our spines as arrows.”

“That might distract him,” said Wendy, “but I don’t think even your spines would stop him as they’d bounce off his metal.”

Suddenly Handel’s eyes widened, “I’ve got an idea,” he said, and they all got into a huddle and whispered together.

“Quick, back to the restaurant!”

Handel and Wendy dashed back to the restaurant, gathered lots of ingredients and then began a lot of weighing. They put all the ingredients into their biggest bowl and stirred them aggressively. They found the biggest cake tin they had, put lots of mixture in it and put it in the oven.

Meanwhile, Monster Dee was still CLANKING and CHOMPING and the trees were still disappearing but not quite as quickly as before. The brave hedgehogs were running up to him, firing their spine arrows and running away before he could catch them. Monster Dee felt the arrows as you might feel an insect bite, they annoyed him and slowed him down, while Wendy and Handel worked on their plan with the help of some of the other foxes.

Finally, they were ready to act. They crept out and put what they had cooked a few metres ahead of where Monster Dee was eating trees.

CLANK! he went and then SQUISH! His foot had landed in the biggest, stickiest chocolate fudge cake that has ever been made. He struggled and struggled but it was like being trapped in a marsh and he could not get out. The other foxes crept up on him while he was struggling and poured lots of water over him and, instantly, he began to rust.

He rusted and rusted until he became a statue and that was the end of the Evil Robot Fox King.

“Hooray!!!” shouted all the foxes and hedgehogs and they all began to sing and dance together, and the other animals came to see what the noise was and then joined in.

The statue of the Evil Monster Robot King is still in Candyland and it reminds all the animals that they can work together, be kind and be friends even though they are all very different from each other.

All their teachers, rather sneakily, say they must be kind to their teachers too.

The End

Stories by Year 5

Animals on the Loose

Six seconds ago, now 12 seconds, a war started. At first a cat, the god Cat, tried to order some pizza but the Pizza people kicked him out. He called god Dog and asked for some help. God Dog tried to order a pizza for him but HE GOT KICKED OUT!

This meant that they went and got the most powerful Guardians, Mr Bombastic, Mr SideEye, My Joey, Mr Joey, Mr Dog, Mr Dog (yes, some of them are twins). They had been named by their parents as, obviously, no-one else would name them. It looked as though they would be able to win a war against the Pizza people, especially when King Hamster joined them, but the Burgers joined the Pizzas and so the teams were equal.

They stood and started at each other for about 2 minutes while a crowd assembled. They knew they must fight. They came charging at each other. The Pizzas were getting beaten up. A Pizza was down and then another one. King Pizza got cooked by god Hamster and then the Guardians and god Hamster cooked half of the Pizzas but they only gave the crumbs to the cats.

So, god Cat cooked Queen Pizza and then started to focus on the normal pizzas. After another fight or two they thought they had won but they'd forgotten about King Burger. God Cat finished him off and they all settled down to eating their pizzas peacefully.

The End.

Box Stealer

In a sinister Month, a monster, by the name of Box Stealer, went crazy and all the food boxes went missing. Find out how the monster took all the food boxes and why it had something to do with the Grimace Shake.

Chapter 1 – The Curse

In 2023 in North Carolina USA, a shake is released by McDonalds called the Grimace Shake. The Shake becomes known for turning people crazy. One man, named Rice Baby, gets lost in his mission to uncurse the shake. Instead, he is hired by Grimace's inventor to force citizens to drink the shake. Even a speck of water can be destroyed and transformed into the Grimace Shake if Rice touches it.

People believe the Grimace Shake contains a hunger mix as one of the most common symptoms is becoming insanely hungry. This happens to Rice who, after drinking too many Grimace shakes turns purple, loses control and is apparently caught stealing boxes of food; so, people name him Box Stealer.

This curse stays on Box Stealer and more and more boxes of food begin to disappear from people's doors. The police try to see if the grimace shake really does contain a hunger potion mixed in its recipe which, if true, is the greatest evidence they could find.

Chapter 2

Over the next few days, the police find new evidence and let people know that it's not actually a hunger potion but a schizophrenic potion placed into the Grimace shake's recipe. Apparently, A McDonald's employee secretly added a schizophrenic special recipe to the Grimace shake. The proof found by the police is reinforced by Rice's Dad, Scooby Pants. He admits that his son always whispers while he sleeps, "Boxes scare me" or "They are chasing me" which doesn't point to hunger.

Scooby Pants tells a news reporter that he believes his son is hallucinating. Soon the police will need to try and find out who the employee is who added the schizophrenic potion to the shake and forced Rice Baby to work for him.

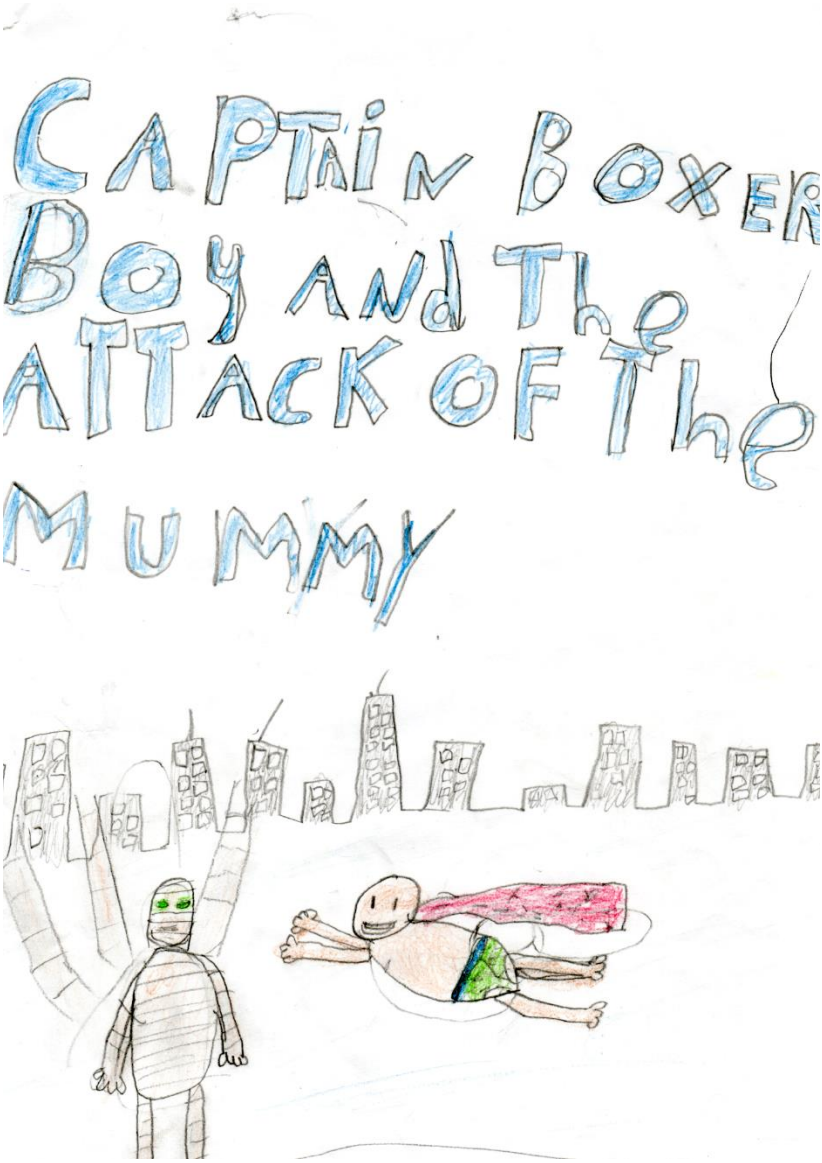
Chapter 3 – Find evidence

At this moment the police find the employee and stop him from cursing anymore shakes. However, since their investigation is secret, I am not able to share their findings with the readers. So, I'll just explain how Rice was cursed.

When Rice Rice Baby was only 16, he was inspired to go and see if people could try the Grimace shake without going crazy or dying as the shake had already caused 4,000 deaths. When Rice was about to try the cursed shake, he prayed to God that he wouldn't be cursed. But then he had a drunk vision and then he got weird. Disturbingly, he started moving his head in eight directions and the mysterious curse was carrying him away.

Rice's Mum, Chikwawa, has been crying in despair ever since the curse and has been trying to save him. But as people say: "life is life." To the person reading these words, even after all this time has passed, he is still out there with his eyes all shallow and his body trembling with sudden movements. The End.

Captain Boxer Boy and the Attack of the Mummy



Chapter 1 – Jack and Frank

This is Jack and Frank. Jack wears a tie and a flat cap and Frank wears a tie and has bad hair. Remember that now.

If you were to ask, 'how would you describe Jack and Frank?' their parents would say they are sweet, loving, and caring but they have a silly streak – that is the big thing about them, they like to be silly.

Once they did a big prank and sabotaged their school band. They put soap in the instruments and put very tiny balls in the drums and put glue on the knots. So, when later that day, the band started to play there was something wrong.

"The instruments are full of soap" the children said "we wonder who did that?"

Everyone was fed up.

Chapter 2 – Big Trouble

Next day Frank and Jack were at school as normal when the loud speaker said:

"Frank and Jack, come to the Principal's office immediately." Then Jack said:
"Do you think we've been caught?"

You are wondering who is that fat person? That is Mr File. He is the head of the school. Frank and Jack were with him because Mr File thought they had done it but he couldn't prove it. Frank and Jack told Mr File that they were "Willing to do anything."

So, they made a deal that Frank and Jack would behave for four whole weeks, and Mr File wouldn't tell their parents of his suspicions, and he gave them extra French lessons.

Chapter 3 – New Teacher

The next time they went to school there was a new French teacher called Mrs Paget. Jack and Frank created a comic book about her. When they finished, they took it to the printer to copy it so they could sell copies of it at 60p each.

They were so pleased with their idea that they then created a character called Captain Boxer Boy, and everyone loved it.

The story in the comic book told all about the French class going on a trip to see a mummy. There was a sign by the mummy saying 'do not touch' but the teacher touched it and was turned into a mummy. All the children called for Captain Boxer Boy who flew at the mummy but the mummy just laughed and locked him in her coffin. She thought she had won but Captain Boxer Boy escaped and was free. He fought the mummy and knocked her right out and they locked her into a coffin.

But that was just a story they'd made up and Jack and Frank were still having a bad time because of their promise to Mr File to be good for four weeks. They wanted revenge.

So, they went and got a spell and decided to test it on the French teacher to see if it would work. They chanted:

"You will be a powerful and a bad mummy" and that's what she became.

She chased them and although they tried climbing high up and dropping pepper on her she burst into the hall and chased them into the Principal's office. They tried to turn Mr File into Captain Boxer Boy but he just jumped out of the window when he discovered he could fly and had super strength. He flew back and they all had a big fight with the powerful bad mummy.

The mummy was knocked out and Jack and Frank quickly turned her back into their French teacher and everything was calm again.

The End.

Charlotte and the Mysterious City of Fydell

It all started when Charlotte was driving to the shops. She took a wrong turn and went past the City of Fydell. She had never seen or heard about this city. It looked mysterious in the dark and rainy night. She decided to return the next day and explore.

Before she left, Charlotte thought she saw a man but didn't know what or who it was.

She couldn't sleep all night. Through her window she saw the man from Fydell looking at her from round the corner of a building.

The next day no one knew where Charlotte had gone. She had gone to look for the City of Fydell but she couldn't find it. It looked as though it had disappeared in the night and she didn't know if she had just dreamed about the city or not.

So, she went home, convinced the city had just been a dream. But if this was so, why was the man from Fydell still at the corner of the building?

The End.

Death has a Shadow

Chapter 1 - Death in the family

Once there was a man who was protecting his twin brother but they were surrounded. The bad people tried to kill both brothers but only managed to kill one, his name was Ben. He was lying on the floor bleeding out and his last words were, “Take this goo, it will benefit you on your journey…”

His twin brother, Darle, was next to the body screaming, “Ben can’t be dead, he can’t!” but he realised that the grim reaper was coming. The grim reaper had come. As Darle was hiding behind a barrel, he had seen the bony body of death with his large, bloody pickaxe that sliced open the body. Blood splattered over the cloak that belonged to the grim reaper and over Darle’s fleshy face. Ben’s soul had been collected by the grim reaper.

Chapter 2 - The crime scene

When the grim reaper had left the scene, Darle had called the police. After they arrived, there was a complete search for the grim reaper in their home city, New York, but he was nowhere to be seen. Although they couldn’t find the grim reaper, they could assess the cause of death. It turned out to be cancer that had turned into a heart attack after the bullets made impact with the body.

Chapter 3 - The mystery goo

As he entered his brother’s house, he went to the roof and found a container. Darle thought back to his brother saying “Take the goo.” He opened the container to find more of the goo and touched it. As the goo covered Darle, he found himself in battle armour engraved with alien symbols. He thrust his arm forward and a sword was revealed. He did the exact same with his other arm and now he had twin blades. He thought to himself, “There’s a mugging happening in an alley.” He went to the alley and showed no mercy to the thieves, slicing their limbs off.

Chapter 4 – Revenge

After a year had passed Darle realised if he faked his own death, he could fight the grim reaper, even though the grim reaper had become more powerful since the last encounter they had. He stabbed himself to fake his death (although he healed quickly) and waited for the grim reaper to come. As the reaper arrived, Darle went to stab him but the grim reaper broke the blade and stabbed Darle. As the goo tried to heal its friend, the reaper’s blade stopped the healing from happening. The reaper was going for a pickaxe to the head but the goo launched itself onto the reaper. The goo took control over the reaper and launched the reaper to space where they went to a dying planet that was going to explode. But, back on Earth, sadly Darle was now bleeding out. He sent a video to his family, his wife Laura, and his son Ben.

The End

Did Joel Steal the King's Crown?

Chapter 1

It all started when the King was in his castle making sure his wife (the queen) was OK because she was sick.

Suddenly, there was a knock at the door. The King opened the door and it was one of his guards:
"I've got the Queen's medication."

The King took it up to her and got her some water as well.

When he came down the first thing he realised was that one of the dogs was out of its cage and the front door was wide open. The King started to shout out of the front door: "Charlie! Charlie!" but he did not come back.

The King told the Queen and she was shocked and really upset.

Two weeks later……

The Queen had been taking her medicine and was feeling a lot better. She is up and on her feet and helping the King to find his crown (he could not find it anywhere). He had a feeling that someone had taken it. The Queen and he asked all the guards if they had seen it anywhere.

The guards found a little girl and she was holding the crown. The King took the crown from her and said:
"Do not come back to this place."

He went to tell the Queen what had happened and she was shocked. They decided to put both of their crowns in a safe so that, should anyone break in, they would not be able to get the crowns. Thereafter they used to check on the crowns to see if they were still there and had not moved.

Chapter 2 – The Queen's Death

The Queen had stopped taking her medication. She got into a fight with the King and he pushed her over. She was really hurt and she passed out. A couple of hours later she woke up and found herself in bed. The King came to speak to her but she did not want to speak to him. A couple of days later, during which time they had not spoken to each other, the King went to check on her and found she had stopped breathing. The King called an ambulance. When the ambulance arrived, the paramedics said:
"She is no longer alive. We are so sorry for your loss."

Two months later the King held a funeral for her and the whole city attended.

Chapter 3 – The Crown is Lost.

The King went to check the safe and was shocked to discover that both the crowns were missing. He heard that a little boy called Joel had both the crowns and was in serious trouble with the police and had been kicked out of the city. Because the guards could not catch Joel, they punished his family by sending them all to jail except for his little brother who was sent to live in a different city.

The End.

Do not die in your mind [Friday 13 October 2021]

Chapter 1 - Breaks hearts

Once upon a time there was a family. But the family was so dramatic. Their kid was 13 years old. He liked to help others. He was not afraid of anything. He was kind. In a normal school with normal friends. His name was Harry and he lived in New York City. He liked to do his hobbies.

One day, Harry's mum left his dad.
"Where is mum?" Harry asked.
"She left us, Harry," he cried.
"Why?"
"Don't know."

He told his friends.
They said "Bad news. Where is your mum?"
"California."
"Why?" said the friends.
"Don't know," said Harry.

Chapter 2 - Run away

Harry's dad drank. Harry said:
"Are you feeling good?"

Dad was angry, he was throwing bottles at Harry, who ran away from him. Harry ran. He fell down. He went to his best friend's house to sleep.

Chapter 3 - Ghosts

It was night time. Harry saw ghosts. They started, they saw him, Harry disappeared. It's a mystery. Harry saw the underworld. He heard screaming. He could taste blood, real blood tasting of iron and salt.

“Fire and flame, you are in hell,” said the devil.

Chapter 4 - Mercy blood

Harry said “Why?.”
Then God said “You’re not a bad person. The ghosts teleported you to this dimension.”
Harry said, “Can… you bring me to the world?”
God said “I can but… but wait, I’ve got to go, wait, hold on…”
“Why are you laughing, just laughing? I am stuck forever here now.”

Chapter 5 - Light is bright

Then he heard a voice say:

“Now,” and he saw a bright light.
God said, “I’m bringing you to the world,” and he disappeared…

The End.

Ellie and the Mysterious Island

It all started when Ellie was on her boat fishing with her dad close to the coast of Scotland. They had been fishing for two hours and had caught ten small fish. It was a very rainy and stormy day and the waves were very big. The waves carried their boat onto a small island which Ellie and her dad had never seen before.

They started panicking and they tried to slow the boat down but nothing worked, so they had to stay on the island for a while. When the rain stopped and the sun came out, they decided to go back onto their boat. Suddenly something caught Ellie's eye and she could hear strange noises. They were both scared and held onto each other. The noises grew louder and louder as though someone was walking towards them.

Abruptly the noises stopped and, since it was very quiet, they decided to take a nap.

When they woke up, they found themselves back on their boat and in the middle of the sea. They thought that the power of the island had pushed them back onto the sea and that whatever lived on the island wanted to be left alone. So that is what they decided to do.

The End.

Fantasy Forest

Chapter 1 - Halloween Day

There was a girl called Lila who was 12 years old and lived in a forest. On Halloween morning, she went into her front garden to pick some fresh, red strawberries. While she was walking outside of the house, her dad tried to tell her that she had taken the car keys by accident with her.

However, before she had time to understand what her dad was saying, two strange people popped out from behind the bush wearing knitted black masks.

Chapter 2 - It’s Not Over

Lila didn’t know what to do. She froze for five seconds. Then, Lila picked up her berries and ran inside. When she got inside, her dad asked:
“Did you get the keys?”

However, obviously, she forgot. Lila ran back outside. She couldn’t see the keys, but there was a splatter of blood on the car. What had happened, she asked herself?

Chapter 3 - Unknown Friends

The robbers didn’t know they have chosen the wrong time and place to steal. The forest where Lila lived wasn't any forest, but was an enchanted one that came to life at Halloween. The creatures in the forest were faithful to her and her dad, as for generations their family had been kind and helpful to the inhabitants of the forest. Lila knew the spot of blood meant the creatures have abducted the robbers. The only thing left for her was to find the keys. Speaking in the secret language of the forest, Lila asked the magical creatures if they could retrieve her keys. Before she had time to finish her request, the keys were thrown at her from one of the bushes. Saying thank you and bowing in the direction of the bush, she took the keys and went back inside. Despite being isolated from any other human beings by living in the middle of a forest, Lila and her dad felt safe, for the fantasy forest would always have their back.

The End.

Forgotten

Two boys named Kayden and Jakub were playing Fortnite on the PS5 and the Xbox when suddenly they heard 3 taps on the door even though they were home alone….

They went to see what had caused the noise and discovered that there was ink everywhere. They decided to get their ghost gun to help them look but it didn't detect anything.

Suddenly, Jakub was snatched by the leg and Kayden thought he would never to be seen again. Kayden ran into his bedroom and slammed the door shut. He grabbed his Minecraft sword that was secretly a machete.

He saw a monster run outside with Jakub, so he chased after the creature prepared to have a big battle in the monster's lair. Suddenly, Kayden saw the ink monster run into a cave that he wasn't familiar with.

Kayden then saw the monster so he charged with his machete and chopped off the monster's horns and the monster SCREECHED. The monster grabbed Kayden but he managed to chop off its arm.

"It dissolved" Kayden said with fear in his eyes. Kayden grabbed Jakub and ran into the house. Jakub's parents came back and Kayden said:
"Your son is hurt."
Jakub's parents said:
"We have no son"……

The End.

His Goal Is…

Marcus Rashford has done a lot of work for the community. He has played charity matches, fed people, and sent money to people in need. As you know, Marcus is a wonderful football player. He plays for England and Manchester United.

Rashford is a sensational player like his idol Ronaldo, the Portuguese legend. Rashford has got five Champion Leagues wins and scored the winning goal in the final of the Carabao Cup against Newcastle.

Rashford has fine attributes that will help his team win this season. Manchester United are heading into the Champion League next season, and they are confident as ever. Within their new transfers, Mason Mount is one of the great talents they acquired. He has won Champions Leagues and also Premier Leagues.

Marcus had been playing badly after the loss in the FA Cup against Man City. However, their luck had a turn for the better and they won against Chelsea. Marcus Rashford turned his career around. He had been in the academy for five years and has been in love with the team ever since he started. Marcus Rashford is an inspiring person, and he will always be my hero.

The End.

How Good is He?

Chapter 1

Bukayo Saka plays for Arsenal. He also supports the England team. He plays right wing and midfielder. He supports his community and their happiness. He is fast and he usually wears some light tech fleeces, or Adidas tracksuits or some England kit (like the new one that has Nike socks). The things about him are, he respects people, other players and his fans. He will sign autographs for all his fans and, sometimes, after a match he will give a special fan a pair of his boots or his shin pads. He does this when he's in a good mood. His best friends are in the squad. As you may know, he nearly won the Premier League but Man City just overcame his football team. They are sponsored by companies including Prime and Adidas.

Chapter 2

Bukayo Saka, my favourite football player, has good sponsorship. It doesn't matter who you are, he'll be a good friend and always there for you. He can give you life lessons, not just about football. He could change your life! I'm not lying. He likes to spend his money wisely and not stupidly. If you spend money stupidly you will probably end up bankrupt and that's bad for you. When you are in school, it's good to be smart like Bukayo because you need an education to be the best, but maybe you don't, who knows……

The End.

Jacob the Immortal Man

One day a man broke up with his girlfriend. He was poor and he really needed food, so he took out his gun and went to a bank to try to steal some money. The police caught him and killed him, but somehow… he came back to life, a year later.

During the year when he was gone, a deep silence fell on the city. All crime completely stopped at that time. Then, when he returned the police were after him again.

When he saw the police, he killed them all, as he had promised himself he would. After he killed all the police he could find, he went to the police station to kill the chief. He tortured the chief and then finally stabbed him.

Suddenly, a helicopter came out of nowhere to shoot the man, but it missed him. However, the rotor blade sliced his head off like a machete. After his death, there was silence for one thousand years.

The End.

Nightmare Neighbour

One day there was a party that Chantelle went to with her aunty. After the party they went for a McDonalds and then she went back home to her Mum. They all got changed into their pyjamas and went to bed as usual but Chantelle always stayed awake for a while to write in her diary. Amber (Chantelle's Mum) was downstairs watching TV until…….. they heard banging on the walls separating them from their neighbour who was a crazy psycho who had already smashed their windows and chased them so they all began to get scared. Thomas (Chantelle's brother) didn't realise what was happening.

The house began to shake, Thomas threw his tablet across his bed and Chantelle began to shout out to her Mum. Amber rang her Mum (Mia) who lived with Chantelle's great cousin, Rio. They both got on their bikes and went as fast as they could to Chantelle's house.

Soon after, the house began to shake even more. Rio was scared and wanted to go home but she was afraid to go on her bike in case the neighbour, John, was near the door. So, she called a taxi and went to stay at a friend's house. Mia wasn't afraid so she didn't mind but she was a bit angry and she knew how dangerous John could be. Thomas and Chantelle were shaking and Amber was on the phone to her friend Tiurgo who said he would come and bring his friends with him. He came but none of his friends was willing to come with him.

Amber was becoming more scared as she knew Mia would need to leave soon. Amber called her dad, Kai. He came to the house and they were glad.

They heard banging on the door, it was John. Chantelle and Thomas were so tired they had fallen asleep so they were both groggy when they woke at 2am and not sure what was happening or where they were. They were in the bedroom cupboard where Amber had put them for safety. Chantelle's toe was stuck under the door.

John was now banging on the car of Chantelle's uncle's friend and he had a knife in his hand. The friend swiftly drove away and chased after Chantelle's uncle with the knife. He was frightened for his life.

The police came and escorted everyone out of the house but they could not find John although there were sightings of a man at 3am holding a knife nearby. The police took them to Mia's house for safety and Amber had to give the police a statement. It was now 4am and Chantelle and Thomas were tired. Soon after the statement had been taken it was 5am.

John was still on the run and, fortunately, didn't know where Mia's house was. The children were safe there and Mia was happy as she was with Mia's dog.

A couple of days later they went to school. The whole family was still worried about John so they had a meeting about the situation with another neighbour. They decided to bid for a new house and they got one. Quite quickly Chantelle, Thomas and Amber felt safe in their new home. They started to decorate it. Thomas decided to have a robot theme, Amber had coloured LED lights. Amber had a simple and plain but lovely room.

The End

One Thousand Deaths in One Second

Chapter 1 -The Birth of Hell and Heaven

On Thursday 12 October my little brothers are born. It is a nightmare; they aren't even fully human! One is part dog, human and demon; and his skin is radiating with red light. The second one is part dog, human, cat, dragon, and snake. They both have a sword and two daggers. They have dark eyes.

Chapter 2 -The Battle for Life

Today is Friday 13 October, the day everything will happen. My brothers start to fight. A nuke called Lethal explodes. Demons attack everyone in heaven except three people: my brothers and me.

Chapter 3 -The Beginning

The nuke is full of unstable uranium. It is a lethal weapon, which, in perspective, explains the name of the nuke. Everyone gets killed and goes to an alternate reality… hell.

Chapter 4 -The Three Brothers

My two brothers create a portal and go to that exact reality where everyone went. They fight and fight and fight for multiple millennials with one another killing everyone around them.

Chapter 5

The End…or Is It?

Everyone is dead…or are they…?

Epilogue

Two sisters are born from the brother's ashes. They are part human, part angel. The two of them revive everyone and bring them back to heaven from hell. Nobody remembers what happened, except for me. I never tell anyone what I know and spend the rest of my life looking after my two sisters who love each other dearly.

The End.

Peppa Pig Steals Money

Peppa Pig was ready to rob a bank. She turned on her motor bike and, over its noise, she could still here a bird talking to another bird. She got on her motorbike and drove to the bank. Going inside with a gun, she shot it at the roof and said: “Give me the money.”

Peppa Pig was rich with all the money and she got on her motorbike and escaped (she was happy that she was very rich).

The police came to arrest her but she escaped and hid. When the police left, she came out of hiding and lived happily.

She gave some money to her parents and some to charity and saved some. Some she gave to George Pig and he went to the shops with his parents and bought dinosaur toys. His parents shopped for dinner and bought food and drinks and his mother looked for pancakes. They had a good dinner.

They bought dogs to protect them and then they felt safe and lived happily ever after.

The End.

Revenge

It was 8.30 on a school Monday morning. Becca walked with fear on her face and guilt. She hadn't done Maddie's homework. When she thought she wouldn't see Maddie she came into school …

"Where's my homework?" Maddie suddenly whispered in Becca's ear. Becca stuttered saying "Uh-uhm-uh I didn't d-do i-it."

One of Maddie's friends named Leah said "This isn't good."

Maddie knew there was a teacher nearby so she walked away giving Becca the death stare. Then Miss Pot walked in and went over to Becca.

"Well, have you been causing trouble with Maddie."

Becca had a dubious look on her face because she knew Maddie lied. That's when Maddie walked in. She started crying and playing the victim. That's when Becca got so angry, she hit her.

"This is not acceptable in my school, you're done!" said Miss Pot.

Becca was in tears and went home while Maddie was laughing as she knew she'd got her way. Becca went to her room. She decided she had had enough. She disguised her true self as someone no one would ever think she would be. She went to school the next day and made sure no one would make her go through trouble again as she was the Devil in disguise.

She Maddie’s life miserable. One night Becca took Maddie and the next day everyone realised something was not right. Maddie was not to be found …

That’s when Becca found out Maddie wasn’t really alive, but when Becca woke up, it was just a dream…

The End.

Sam Shooter Bank Thief

Long ago, Sam woke up wondering what he would do that day. He thought that he needed money so he decided that he was going to rob a bank. There was no bank in his town but there was one 10 miles away. He went to get ready. Them he hopped onto his horse while saying:
“Come, Betsy, let’s go, YEE HAW.”

Twenty minutes later he arrived at the town and he decided to explore the town before he robbed the bank. He found a bar and grabbed a quick drink. When he had finished, he headed for the bank. As he walked there, sand flew into the air.

When he got to the bank he asked for a loan. The manager came and opened the vault to get his loan. Sam pushed him out of the way and stole the money and then blew the bank up. The police were on the lookout for him so he hopped onto his horse and zoomed back to his home town. Then he hid and thought he was OK until the sheriffs came knocking at his door. They said:
“My name is John Terry” said one sheriff
“and mine is Billy Bob” said the other “we heard you stole some money and we’re gonna search your house.”
“Okay” said Sam “I’ve got nothing to hide.”

After 20 minutes they finished their search and they had found nothing. So, they left saying:
“Sorry for wasting your time Sir.”
“It’s Okay” said Sam “Alright, Goodbye.”

It’s been 400 years since this happened and nobody caught Sam. It’s now the present day and the sheriffs’ children and still trying to find out if Sam stole the money or not.

The End.

That One Boy

Chapter 1 – Boy

Running…..Wandering……Stealing……that one individual, different boy……Ethan was the name. It all started in 2001, Ethan was running down the Town Square, the baker was chasing him shouting “Oi! Thief! Police!” A policewoman joined in the chase.

Twenty minutes later he was sitting in a leather spinning chair which Ethan was tempted to spin around on but he didn’t, he couldn’t afford any more trouble. He’d already stolen a baguette.

The policewoman entered the room with a serious expression:
“Twenty-eight foster homes and you’re now in the police station for the tenth time. You’re a disappointment to the town.”
“Sorry, urmmm,” Ethan looked at her name tag “Sam.”
“How dare you call me by my first name!” she yelled “Call me Officer Karen.”
“Well, that explains it,” Ethan muttered under his breath.
“What was that?” she growled.
“Oh, nothing” he said as calmly as if he was sitting in a rubber ring on a lazy river.
“Get Out! And don’t get into any more trouble!”
“Yes, Officer Karen” he replied with a snigger.

Chapter 2 – A Best Friend

As Ethan was walking home, he heard a whimper in the alley near his house. He peeped behind the wall. A dog, or what he thought was a dog. It had no fur and it had a can stuck round its head. It had obviously been there for quite a while. He, or she, hadn't had any food for a long time; it was skin and bones. It was whimpering and whining for help.

Ethan tried to approach the dog but it backed away from him. He finally managed to get hold of it and get the can of its head and give it some food and water.

The dog started to follow Ethan around. Ethan said gently to the dog:
"Go on, you're free to go." But the dog just started at him. "Come on then." Ethan said and he cared for and nurtured the dog.

Then Ethan found a foster home and then was adopted by a lovely family called Johnson. So, Ethan became Ethan Johnson and he never, ever, sat in that leather spinning chair in Officer Karen's office ever again and all because of his dog, Harry the Greyhound.

The End.

The Basement Creeps

Chapter 1 - Curiosity started it all

July 23rd 2022, the day everything began. I was just playing in my room until my mom came and said for me to do the groceries. I got some bags, my mom gave me the list of what to buy, she gave me some money, and she sent me on my way. I was on my way until I saw a basement door. My curiosity forced me to check what was inside. It was super foggy and dusty, but I continued in. When I got to a point where I could finally see something, the basement door shut. I tried to open it, but it was locked. I thought I was lucky because I had my phone with me, but there was no signal, so the only thing I could do was to go down the staircase.

Chapter 2 - A hellhole full of creeps

I got to the point where I stopped and …

I saw a creepy smiley face with a blood red colour. I really wanted to go back home but it felt like the staircase was getting longer and longer, so I ran down the staircase before I was stuck on it. When I got down the staircase, I was greeted with monsters going about their business but when one of them saw me, I ran for my life. I realised that the staircase was gone. Instead, I saw an armoury which looked abandoned, it only had a desert eagle gun which was good enough for me. I grabbed a magazine, I loaded the gun, I pulled back the spring, and I shot. The hammer system shot the bullet, the fire gave the bullet a boost, the bullet hit the monster's head and the monster died. The blood and spit left the monsters body, the blood was green and the spit was purple, I thought some spirit wanted to help me because no way could those monsters have made a mechanism that made the staircase disappear and the armoury appear. I continued and I saw a huge number of monsters but they were friendly and they wanted me to escape.

Chapter 3 - Allies to the rescue.

I saw a lot of different violent monsters but I knew it was too late to get more magazines, so I used my remaining shot to kill a monster that was in my way and I ran for my life, my family, and all the friends that I had. I reached a spot the violent monsters couldn't get to.

My allies claimed that "We have been attacking for a long time now, and when a monster tried to kill you, we helped you."
"So, I was correct about you wanting to help me" I spoke for once.

They led me to a place where humans can peacefully fall asleep. Their reason was there was that there was only one exit that I wasn't ready for. When everyone fell asleep, I sneaked out, I reached the exit and …

To be continued, in part 2

The End

The Big Mystery

A few years ago, a girl called Viki was one of the kindest people in the world, and she helped all the people. She was only 18 years old but, when she became 27, she married a man called Josh. He wasn't a good person but Viki didn’t realise that. She thought that he was a very kind and good person.

One day Josh came home angry from work and Viki wanted to kiss him, but he pushed her away. Poor Viki was confused and she started to cry, and right then Josh started shouting at her and then she said:

“What’s wrong with you?”

Sadly, Josh replied “Shut up I don’t need you in my life anymore.”

Poor Viki didn’t believe what happened but, believe it or not, she left the house. Right then, after she left the house, in Josh’s bed a demon called Horror appeared. Josh went to the bathroom and when he came back to his room, he saw the demon and he was in a panic and he tried to get out of there but he couldn’t. Horror attacked him until he died, and that happened. The end of the story is happy because Viki found another man. She married him and she forgot about Josh.

The End.

The Biggest Find of Treasure

Max and Alex are on the beach and they are looking for treasure. They are hoping to find a chest in the sand that they can dig up. They are looking for treasure because they are poor and they can't pay the rent.

Years and years pass while they continue to search the beach for money. In time they are lucky and find an abandoned briefcase. In it are bank cards and a map showing where treasure was hidden on an old abandoned boat. They used one of the bank cards to buy a boat and rowed to the old boat. In it they found gold, silver and sparkling jewels and they were never poor again.

The End.

The Curse of the Hotel

Chapter 1 – Where it all Began

In a far land there was a big, strongly built, and mysterious hotel. In it were 10 young kids who had no-one to look after them. There was a storm and they were startled when the lightning went BANG! Anyway, meet Jack, John, Henry, Ivy, Oliver, Olly, Nora, Nola, Daniel and Preston.

“Ivy” said Henry “What’s wrong?”
“How ca ca can we escape?” asked Ivy
“I don’t know,” said Henry.

There was a BANG and Oliver fell out of a wardrobe, saying “A gh..gh..ghost.” He sounded scared.

Henry thought that Oliver had just had a crazy dream and was reassured when Ivy said, calmly, that she would go and fetch the milk.

Then she heard a sound “AWW” coming from the room below. She woke up the twins (Nora and Nola) and they hid in the room with Oliver and Henry and, by now, they were all trembling in fear.

“I’m sure I saw a Gh..gh..ghost!”

Just then the elevator went ‘Ding’ and the doors opened but no-one was inside. Suddenly, Ivy said:

“Where’s that smoke coming from?”

Chapter 2 – The Smoke Ghost’s Curse

Henry grabbed the hoover.
“Stop, the twins have been trying to sleep” he said.
“No, we should actually panic!”

There was a whooshing noise and a strange voice said:
“Give me YOUR SOUL!”
“What was that?” said Olly.
“Haven’t you heard of the Smoke Ghost?” said the strange voice.
“I’ve got a hoover” said Daniel “help me line the hoovers up.”
They turned on all the hoovers and hoovered up the Smoke Ghost.
“It worked!”

Chapter 3 – One Shot, one Ghost

CRASH went the hoovers and in Ivy’s mind a voice said:
“Give me your soul.”

Then everything was spinning and spinning from her head to her toes and she fell to the ground. She had become a different Ivy and she was not in control of her own body and her eyes were glowing blue.

“She’s possessed by a ghost, RUN!” shouted Nora.

Everyone was running.
“Ow, ow, ow, Ivy, Ivy, Ivy, NOOOOOOOO!” said Henry. “I think she’s dead, he added quietly.
“I..I..Ivy” said Henry.
“Yes” said Ivy.
“I think you’re a ghost.”

Henry slipped and was sucked up by a hoover.

Chapter 4 – The Devil and his Oppression

“Hello, I’m the Devil and you will give me your souls. I have a mighty pitchfork that allows me to use half of my powers but I can morph into other beings without using it. Right now, I'm trying to get my hands on 10 souls. You can't see Jack, and that's good because I already have him."

Chapter 5 – The Soul Game

Preston, the youngest but the toughest saved Jack from being buried. As the rest of the group approached, they looked around and Preston had a bucket on his head:

"Wait" he said, "we played the Soul game but we lost because the devil killed them….

Chapter 6 – Daylight and the saving of 10 Souls

Suddenly, it was day. The Devil teleported away before the daylight could touch him. Ivy turned back into a human being and everyone went to bed, but first they thought of a plan for what to do when it was dark again.

Chapter 7 – The Hotel War

They were prepared but so was the Devil. BANG! CRASH! BANG! The war lasted all night and the Devil thought that he had won and he started to take Henry's soul.

"Think again," said Henry as daylight came and killed the Devil and they buried him underground for eternity.

The End.

The Demon Killer

Chapter 1 - The Beginning

Dexter Isucu was an orphan because his parents were killed by the demon king Kisuku. Dexter has a secret ability – when he eats a demon, he gets stronger. He swore to kill the demon king and eat him to get more power.

Chapter 2 – New Powers

Dexter trained in school and with the help of a knight. Then the test came. He needed to kill ten demons. He killed one, ate it and that gave him the strength to eat them all. He kept his new strength until he was 20 years old when he met a girl with strawberry pink hair named Milly. She also had dragon's wings and a dragon's tail. She was very tall with pink eyes and she was friendly.

Chapter 3 – The Fight

They fell in love at first sight but they were both too shy to say so. Dexter went to buy some clothes for her and had them made so there were cut outs for her wings and tail. She said he could use her for travelling and for squatting up in an eyrie. They decided to team up and Dexter's friend, Alex, wanted to join too. His ability is that he can create war. So, they made a war machine and, with Milly, they went up to the castle.

Chapter 4 – The Big Fight

Then there was a war and Dexter had a fight with the king who was 26 years old. Dexter won and then he and Milly kissed. They married and had four kids, 1 girl and 3 boys.

The children grew into teenagers and eventually Dexter and Milly were 94 years old.

Chapter 5 – The Fight Begins Again

The king came back to life and Dexter realised this was because he had forgotten to eat him. They started to fight and were still fighting 2 years later. Eventually, Dexter was so angry he killed the king and ate up every last bit of him. Dexter became the world's strongest man.

The End.

The Dragon and the Long-Lost Crystal

It was a normal day in the Dragon village until the Crystal guardians came and raided the village and took my parents. Ever since I have lived on my own. One day I would get my revenge. Now I help other villages with other dragons, protecting the older dragons who can't fight.

Day by day I fought the Crystal guardians helping to protect villages. But one day I was too late to help one village and the village was destroyed. I was so mad that I planned an attack. I set up camp here, on the mountains … some days I practise fighting so that I am ready when the time comes to battle the Crystal guardians very near to the Crystal.

I climbed further up the mountain with a fearless face. I fell in with some people who needed me to heal them. Then I moved on and now I was in my biggest fight and I was unhurt. I defeated the Crystal guardians, captured the Crystal and was able to bring my parents home.

The End.

The Egyptian Mystery

It all began on a foggy morning when a top-class investigator, named Alan, was woken up by his leader, Lean, and ordered to go to Egypt to find Cleopatra's third egg. At that time, only two out of the three eggs, with hieroglyphs all over them, had been found. It took 3,526 days to find both of the eggs. The last keeper of the third egg was Ra, the Egyptian God of the Sun. He let people believe that he was a hoax, but he was not. He would eliminate anyone who tried to steal his valuable item.

Once Alan arrived at the location, he started walking for hours straight! During his walk, Alan could sense an ominous aura around him. A few hours later, he came across a giant pyramid. Once he went near the structure his instinct started telling him to run away, but of course, he went in.

Alan was the best inspector in his country, the USA. He told himself, "If I'm the best I can't possibly run! That would be foolish of me!" So, he didn't run but entered the pyramid. All seemed normal at first until he saw the hieroglyphs on the walls. The message they conveyed was very eerie. He didn't know what to do, he was scared but he wanted to find more. The more he went in and read the hieroglyphs, the more horrid the message became.

After reading the last ones, Alan said, "This isn't normal! It's like he…or that man is dead! He isn't human! Help! Help! No, please! NO…!" Before fainting from pain, Alan's last words were, "The egg is in the…"

When he woke up, he realised he was still in the pyramid. A secret passage had opened, and stones had fallen through it. Probably, Ra thought that the inspector had been killed in that attack and didn't bother to check. Alan took advantage of his situation and sneaked through the newly opened tunnel. Once he arrived at the end, he found the last egg on a fluffy pillow. Not to let Ra know that his famous egg had been stolen, Alan replaced the egg with his phone.

After he took the egg, Alan got out safely and ran as fast as he could away from the pyramids. Now the humans had all the three eggs of Cleopatra, and they could use their power to cure the ill. Ra would never find out that his egg had been stolen, and he would keep protecting Alan's phone.

The End.

The Endless Haunted Graveyard Curse

Chapter 1 -The Day It All Happened

It all happened at the start of year six.

“Surely, nothing weird is going to happen this year,” said Tom, but of course, he was wrong, like always. At the beginning of that day, Tom thought he might actually be correct, until the chairs started to move by themselves, and everyone started screaming. Tom did not scream, so the other children were shocked by his unfazed reaction.

“Why aren’t you screaming, Tom?” said someone.

Then Tom started screaming too. The chairs stopped moving after an hour, but it felt like 18 hours. Tom’s classmates looked inside a cupboard. Inside they saw a pair of red eyes staring back at them. ‘Who could it be?’ Tom asked himself.

The children decided to get closer and check inside the cupboard.

“There is nobody here,” called out a mysterious voice from inside.
“Who are you?” asked Tom, as he entered the cupboard. Suddenly, the doors closed and Tom was trapped.
“What is happening?” asked Tom out loud.
“This cupboard is run by a curse, the curse of the endless haunted graveyard,” said the mysterious voice.
“I need to run out of here,” Tom thought.

Chapter 2

“Oh, I actually don’t know where we are,” said the mysterious voice.

“Are we lost?” asked Tom.
“I think so,” answered the mysterious voice. “You need to press harder on the door to get out, but you need to hurry before other entities come.”

Tom realised they were in a teleport because, as he gave a final push to the doors, he found himself in a graveyard. The school class was gone.

Tom was finally out of the cupboard. Out of nowhere, a devil popped out in front of him.
“You have to jump off a cliff. I command you to do this!” said the devil.
“I can’t do that,” said Tom.

Tom hit the devil king in the face. Boom! Bang! Clash! He hit the devil again in the head. Tom won the fight and the devil king disappeared. By defeating him, Tom saved the world from the curse, as the graveyard disappeared and never kidnapped anyone again.

The End.

The Fisherman – a description

The fisherman is kind and tall, he is powerful and he is wearing normal clothes. His hair is brown and his eyes are blue, he has a fishing rod and his name is Jakub. He is loud and he is serious, so he is not laughing.

The End.

The Girl who Disappeared

In 1917 Alexandria heard a knocking at the door. She called out:

“Mum, is that you?”

“Yes, I’m here, Darling” replied a mysterious voice.

Alex didn’t believe it was the voice of her mother so she carefully peered through a crack in the door.

“Aghhh!” she screeched.

In a panic she opened the door and swung her fist at the boy, Freddy, who was standing there. To her surprise her arm went through his head.

Quick as a flash, Freddy shape shifted into an exact copy of Alex and made Alex disappear.

Will her family notice?.....

The End.

The Horror House

Once upon a time there was a man named Clarke. He was a poor and an old man.

One night when no-one was outside because it was creepy a man came to his house. Clarke was sleeping. The man went to the kitchen slowly and carefully. He grabbed a knife and killed Clarke and he stole all his money and jewellery.

From that day the only person living in Clarke's house was his son. The house was dark and creepy and no-one came to visit – not even after 12 years. He didn't know who killed his father so he does evil to all robbers.

One day a thief came to the house and Clarke's son shouted "Did you steal all the money?" The robber was scared and he said:

"I robbed this house 12 years ago and I killed the man who was here".

Then the robber saw a dark man and shouted:
"There is a soul, there is a soul, run!"

They both ran as fast as they could but the dark soul came after the robber and killed him with the knife.

The End.

The Horror Zoo Adventure

After we woke up, we got dressed and drove to the zoo car park. The car journey was 12 hours long. Once we arrived, we entered this beautiful garden with exotic bushes and trees. In the middle of the garden, there was a zombie. However, Jack, my brother, said, “It is a joke; it’s just a costume.”

Then I walked to the giraffe, and I saw it was sad. I approached the animal to try and pet it, but it bit my hand, which started bleeding. In a corner, I saw a zoo keeper. I asked him why there wasn’t any panel saying, “Don’t try to pet the animals”? He said the animals in the zoo won’t bite you unless they had been infected by a zombie. He believed there were no zombie animals at that zoo.

I said I was bitten, and I showed him. He didn’t believe me. To show me that he was right he went into the lion enclosure. The lion acted friendly to him. However, the lion was hiding the people he had eaten alive that day. When he realised what happened, the zoo keeper tried to run away, but the door was locked, and the owner of the zoo was gone. By leaving the zoo, the owner broke the promise he made to the zoo keeper, which was to never leave the zoo keeper alone.

The zoo keeper pressed the secret button to release all the animals in the zoo and then told me to hide. He whispered to me that all the animals were zombies now and the zombie had infected all of them, except the dolphin. The zoo keeper killed the zombie and went next to the giraffe. He got bitten by the giraffe, which ripped his arm off him. He started running, but then the lion ripped both of his legs. The zoo keeper was slowly dying with only one arm left. He was nearly dead when the rescuers arrived to save him. The rescuers killed all the animals except the dolphins. They took the dolphins to another zoo, and the zoo keeper was transported to the nearest hospital. It took five months for him to recover. He needed metal legs and a metal arm. It cost 999,999 pounds for the metal limbs, which my mom paid for, as a way of thanking the zoo keeper for saving my life.

The following night, I had a nightmare that I died in that zoo, but then I realised it was just a dream and I was still alive. That day I found a package in front of my door. Inside I found a message saying, “Don’t ever come to the zoo again, otherwise in the following 12 hours, you will die.” I never came close to a zoo again.

The End.

The Hyson High School Apocalypse!

Hyson High was a happy school until Li entered the science form. He saw a person tied up and making scary sounds as though he had rabies. When he got closer, he saw the person had white eyes with an evil look in them. He went and got the flying drone that he and his friend were building in science club. Then, mysteriously, the science teacher's laptop suddenly appeared. Something in Li's mind told him to open the laptop and there he found a video named 'Apocalypse Day 1'. In the video the science teacher explained that he had created a virus and that he had done this because his son had been killed and his world had ended.

Li clicked on another video called 'Day 2'. This video said how Zombies work and that if you are a Halfbie you can hear things 3 miles away and have super strength. The zombies appeared and Li and a boy, Sanj, battled them. Sanj was scratched by a Zombie but, rather than help him, Li put a cloth that was bloody with Zombie blood over the scratch to make him Sanj into a Zombie then Li told him it was his own fault.

Someone called Jo had seen everything that had happened and told everyone that Li had murdered Sanj. Everyone drove Li out of the classroom. Everyone could hear Zombie Sanj's bones creaking and making disturbing sounds. Sanj charged at Li who kicked him away. Cheog-son came in holding a sharp stick and stabbed Sanj in the neck.

Then Mi, who is an expert at computing, hooked a PC up to a monitor and tried to call the police. He couldn't get through so he tried to hack into the school internet but that failed, so he tried mobile data to look for news on Facebook but nothing worked. Mi smashed the computer equipment in anger.

By now, they all wanted to go to the toilet but there were zombies outside so they had to make a homemade toilet. They made a box from shells and put a pillow over it for padding. Then night came and they all slept to save their energy.

The next day was the day of complete Apocalypse but Mi flew the drone Li and his friend had built and used it to drop fire onto the Zombies. They burst into flame and then disappeared into a gigantic puff of smoke and everyone managed to escape.

The End.

The Lab Accident

Chapter 1

Tuesday 13th September 2068: “We almost did it. The war with the cyclops is a few more steps nearer to completion.” we need 1 last ingredient:

“BOOM! “WOAH! RUN!”

Chapter 2

Friday 16th July 2069: “We did it, we calmed down. The cyclops are knocked out so that means WE’RE SAFE.”
“Hey Jack”
“Yeah Bruce”
“The cyclops is awake,” said Jack. “TURN ON THE FIRE.”
“OK” says Bruce” (clicks button) “It’s o- WOAH IT’S BREAKING O-”

Chapter 3

1st January 2100: “Send in a missile”
“Copy that, sending last missile incoming”
“It-it died!”
“Wooo!” shouted the survivors as some teenagers approached.
“Get back! We’re radioactive, keep away!”

And the teenagers turned and fled.

THE END

The Last Text [set in 2013]

Chapter 1 - Only the Beginning

Long ago there lived a girl named Grace. She was a kind, funny, confident girl who had many friends and was 15 years old. But …

She had a male friend called Chase, he was a “good” friend to Grace or as she thought. One day, she was playing her favourite game as usual. Putting her new headset on she grinned, excited. A boy joined her game! She said happily:

“Hello! Who are you?”
The boy said “Hi! I’m Chase”.
“Cool name! I’m Grace.”

They played the game together for HOURS!

Grace yawned tiredly “Goodnight Chase.”
He said angrily “Night.”

She hopped off the game upset. She soon fell asleep thinking about what happened. She woke up, got out of her pink silk PJs. She tied her brown curly hair up. She joined her friend Chase on the game again. They both said “Good Morning!” and played, they teamed up and won! Grace went to eat her dinner. She grinned as she ate her rice. She didn’t go back on the game as her best friend Hope came to her house for a sleepover. They giggled happily as they did their skincare after removing their strawberry face masks.

Chapter 2 - Only the end …

The next day the girls woke up and Grace played with Chase while Hope told Grace how to do it. Chase asked Grace to meet up, Grace was worried at first but then eventually said yes… On a chilly Friday morning Grace went to Chase's house and they gamed for a while.

Chase told her to get more games from the BASEMENT then he pushed her down the steps and tied her up. She screamed in pain while moving her limbs. She untied herself and broke free. She ran to the front door but Chase caught her, did she survive?

The End.

The Little Group

Chapter 1 - The walk in

One day, there was a group in Los Angeles and they had known each other for ages. All the people in the group were 16-19 years old. It was made from 4 people (all girls) all with different personalities. The oldest girl was Kayla. She was 19 years old but was very funny and crazy. The second oldest was Leila. She was 18 and had grey eyes that were as dark as midnight. Then it was Eve, who was in this world for 17 years and was a kitten lover. The youngest was Vicky, who was 16; maybe young but had an adult-ish style. On 10th October 2013 it was Kayla's birthday, she was turning 20. She was a horror lover so Leila decided to take her to the horror forest. Everyone agreed except Eve because she felt something terrible was about to happen.

Vicky asked her "Why?"
Eve answered "Because I feel something bad is gonna happen!"

The TV had fallen and Eve and Vicky were shouting at each other. It sounded like some chandeliers falling.
Eve just said "Fine."

Leila was the one organising it, so the others didn't have anything to say.
"You will have 3 hours to get ready," shouted Leila.
"OK," Eve and Vicky said.

(3 hours later)

“Girls, are you ready?” asked Leila. “Yep,” both of them answered. They took Kayla, gave her a blindfold and went to the forest. When they walked into the forest, they heard a mysterious laugh. Eve was a bit terrified but brave. Kayla didn’t know where she was going but was excited. They came into the middle of the forest then they took Kayla’s blindfold off. She was so happy.

“I’ve never been to this forest! Thank you so much girls!” yelled Kayla.
“You’re welcome,” said the girls.
Kayla asked Eve “Why are you so terrified? Is something worrying you, Eve?”
“I don’t want to be here,” Eve whispered.
“Why?” Kayla asked.
“I have a bad feeling about this forest.” Eve mouthed to the rest of the party “what’s gonna happen?” but then…

Chapter 2 - The terrifying truth

But then they tried to come out of the forest. There was something blocking them.

“Told you!” shouted Eve.
“Shut up!” yelled Leila.
“Don’t start an argument,” said Kayla. “We’re gonna be fine, trust me,” Kayla said calmly.

Then all the girls collapsed to the floor and passed away and their souls left their bodies. A year later there was a little boy, Mike, who was very interested in the group. He told his sister, so she said “Fine,” because she thought he was talking about fairies.

But on the night of 10 October 2014, they went to the forest and they saw the dead bodies on the floor and the ghost above saying “Run, quickly, until you…” they were wondering what had happened but they tried leave the forest again something was blocking them and then they also collapsed to the floor and the spirits left their bodies. And this carried on until 2023…

Chapter 3 - New people visited

In 2023 a new girl, who was 2 years old, crawled in and out of the forest. She must be magical as by then people knew that you need to be under 5 and magical to enter and safely come out of the forest.

The End.

The Lost Mystery

Chapter 1 – Dollism

“Wake up! Wake up! Wake up!” whispered an unknown voice.

Sam woke up, but no-one was there. She looked at her arms. One of them was bitten off, the other was white as snow. Sam wanted to look in the mirror. Her face was turning white and cracking. She was turning into a doll.

A demon came and took over her body. Sam was possessed and out of control. The demon made her kill her family.

Chapter 2 - School Killings

When Sam got to school, all eyes turned on her. She went to kill her best friend, then she killed everyone. No one was safe. There was nowhere to hide from her. The demon possessing Sam had no mercy. Cherry-red blood was spilling on the halls. There was no escape.

Chapter 3 - The Sight of Love

Sam turned around, and behind her was a boy. He had blue and green eyes and bright blond hair. She tried to kill him, but her hand stopped. She found she couldn’t finish the blow. Sam felt that he was important to her but couldn’t explain why. The demon got angry and went out of her to kill the boy himself. Yet the boy was faster, he approached and killed the demon in an instant. Sam was no longer a doll. She was free and happy.

Back as a human, the boy found Sam to be very pretty. Sam thought he was very handsome too. The two ended up falling in love.

Chapter 4 - The End

“So that was how your father and I fell in love,” said Sam to her two children. She was telling them the same story she had told them since they were born. However, they always wanted to listen to their mom say it again.

The End.

The Man who got Caught Red Handed

One day two boys named Ethan and Kyle were walking to a bank. When they arrived at the bank, Kyle knocked the secretary out. Etan was wearing a red hoodie and in which he hid the red emerald they had stolen so the cops wouldn't find it. But the cops came and the red emerald dropped out of his hand and he was caught red handed.

He was given a life sentence in gaol and the cops were so mean that they sent then to a dark black room with nothing in it but the electric chair. Just as it looked as though his life would only last another 10 seconds his friends, Amira, Kayden and John, rescued him in a helicopter. When it landed, they all decided never to go robbing again.

The End.

The Man who Stole Love

Chapter 1

There was a time when John was a happy man full of joy and smiles, until one day when his wonderful wife died. So, he decided to steal love as he could not hold it in when looking at couples being together.

He planned to make a falling out of love potion. He researched it over and over again. He was terrified he would get caught but he pushed himself to do it.

When he was ready, he packed the potion and dressed himself in black clothes and an evil black mask and he was ready.

He asked everyone to drink the potion and they did until there was just one person left who had not drunk it. He was called Jay. Luckily Jay made a falling in love potion and managed to save everyone. John realised that what he had done was bad and he found a wonderful new wife and lived an amazing life.

Chapter 2

Jay, who had been such a hero, turned into an evil man. Once Jay had been happy with his wife but she died and his life became miserable. One day, when he had turned into a completely different and horrible man, he wanted to steal love and he made a plan.

He screamed “Yeah, Yeah, I’ve got a plan. I remember John I’m sure he must have some of his potion left.”

As it turned midnight he sneaked into John's house when everyone was sleeping and stole the potion. He took it home where he made it look like a delicious drink.

Chapter 3

Jay made everyone drink the potion and still had some left over and he laughed evilly. John hadn't drunk it. Jay wondered if John would realise that he had stolen it from his house. Jay went to John's house and said he was his friend and that the drink was delicious so John drank it.

Chapter 4

Everyone had drunk the potion and a week later everyone was miserable and life had become boring. Jay realised that what he had done was wrong. He was panicking and went to find the falling in love potion he had made:
"Ya Ya Ya" he cried and changed everyone back. He didn't find a new wife but he did live a wonderful life with John.

The End.

The Mystery Strikes

Chapter 1

In the early 90s a sport named football was presented to the world. The players that were famous were Cristiano Ronaldo and Pele but there were more, like a mysterious player named…?

Chapter 2 - The Mystery Player Moved

The mystery player moved to Spain to a football club named Barcelona. He was the lead top scorer in the La Liga and won the Spanish league title. That made him more known for the club. He was kind, playful and joyful, and he has brown hair that he combs, his eyes sit under his coffee eyebrows. On October 5 2022 he ventured to the training ground and when Gavi, his best friend, was already training. His mystery friend was …!

Chapter 3 - We finally know who he is?

He was Lewandowski, a Polish footballer, who was kind and friendly to Gavi and he was good at doing tricks and dribbles. There was a match on July 20 2024. It was 2-2. Gavi had 2 goals and Adeyemi also scored 2 goals. There was 1 more minute. Barcelona had the ball. Dortmund gave Lewandowski a penalty. If Lewandowski scored, Barcelona would win. AAAnnndd goooooaaaallllll it was 3-2 to Barcelona. Lewandowski was amazed when the fans were happy and asked Lewandowski for his shirt but the person that stood out the most was Bartek and he was…

Bartosz was so amazed he was screaming with happiness. The End.

The Penguin Mystery

Prologue

This is a story about a penguin named Charlie and his owner, Bethany. Bethany had incredibly long blond hair. Bethany was a 13-year-old girl and Charlie was about five years old. Bethany had started school two months ago. Her Mom got divorced three years ago. Charlie would always beg to play hide and seek with Beth. Bethany would be called Beth to save some time. After the first game, they would play two more games of hide and seek. When Beth's turn to count came, she couldn't find Charlie anywhere. So, the story begins…

Chapter 1

It was 2 December, and Beth and Charlie were getting ready for school. If someone was late, Mr Rob wasn't happy. Mr Rob was the head teacher of Treelife Academy.

Charlie was waiting outside of their house. Beth ran, picked up Charlie and ran as fast as she could.

"Almost there, Charlie!" said Beth.
"Hi, Beth!" shouted Sam, Beth's friend "You seem like you are in a rush."
"Yea, tell me about it!" replied Beth.
"Anyway, I better get going," they both said at the same time.

Mr Rob stooped outside to lock the gate. Luckily, they both arrived on time. Sophie was the last child to arrive, but she was the person who was always late.

"Two seconds late," said Mr Rob.

“B-but!” tried to say Sophie.
“You dare try to make an excuse, to me!” shouted Mr Rob.

I’m glad I’m on time, thought Beth. She was so happy, Beth had Miss Router as her teacher today. Charlie was copying Beth. They were both jumping together like lunatics. Everyone was laughing so hard, that they started crying.

Chapter 2

The next day was Saturday. You rightly wonder, where did little Bethany live? Well, she and her Mom weren’t rich, but they weren’t poor. They lived near an abandoned church. After school, Beth and Charlie started playing hide and seek. The third and last game came, and it was Charlie’s turn to hide. Beth went to look for Charlie. However, she couldn’t find him. Beth looked around the church. Beth’s and Charlie’s only rule was that they couldn’t go into the church, but that time she had no choice, Charlie was missing…

Chapter 3

Beth was forced to go home, as tornado warnings were going off.

“Mum! I…I…,” tried Beth to say, but couldn’t.
“Where’s Charlie, hon?” Beth’s mom asked.
“I don’t want to talk about it,” said Beth.
“BETHANY!” shouted her mom.
“I have no clue,” said Beth.
“Charlie’s been kidnapped,” said an unknown man who made his way into their house.
“By whom?” asked Beth.

“Not sure, the last time I saw him, he was inside the church,” replied the man.
“Thank you, could you leave our house now, please?” Beth’s mom said impatiently.
“Yes ma’am…” replied the man terrified, and then he left.
“BETHANY STEWART!” yelled Beth’s mom as loud as she could. Beth was too scared to do anything, so she tried to escape her sight.
“Charlie, please come back,” said Beth under her breath.

Chapter 4

Beth woke up. As she was getting ready for school, she only just remembered Charlie was gone. Sadly, Beth arrived at school one minute late. Mr Rob was waiting.

“Bethany, Bethany, Bethany,” sighed Mr Rob.
“Leave me alone…,” said Beth quietly.

Mr Rob saw that Bethany was not her joyful usual self. He also realised that Charlie, the penguin, was not there. Mr Rob let Beth through.

Bethany stopped talking since she lost her pet penguin. She started wearing grey dresses with black buttons so that she wouldn’t forget her penguin.

Chapter 5

The man came again waking everyone in the Stewart’s house. Beth’s cousins were over at their house that day. The cousins’ names were Annabelle and Michael. Annabelle was 13, while her brother was four years younger. The three children in the house woke up by the sudden noise made by the man, but they thought it was only the wind.

“When are you going to tell us where Charlie is?” asked both Annabelle and Michael.
Beth’s diamond-blue eyes turned into a nasty grey.

“I told you we never, and I mean never, talk about Charlie!” yelled Beth.

Michael started crying.

“Great, you don’t need to shout, honestly!” said Annabelle.
“May I speak now?” said the mysterious man.

Everyone was speechless, they hadn’t notice when he came into their room. Beth saw that he was trying to hide something behind his back, but she managed to catch a glimpse just before it disappeared.

“Why do you have the church book?” asked Beth.
“I…um…,” mumbled the man trying to think of an idea. Finally, he came up with a lie.
“I go to church?” the man replied sounding both displeased and unsure.

However, Beth couldn’t be deceived, she knew that book could only be found in the abandoned church, as she saw it when she went in to look for Charlie.

“I know you got that book from the same place you said you saw Charlie last, which is before he was kidnapped. I know you are lying. Tell me where you are hiding Charlie. Now, before I get Mom!” threatened Beth.

“Fine! I will tell you everything I know. Please, don’t get her!” cried the man. “I admit I was the person who kidnapped Charlie. I hid him in the haunted church to come later at night to take him to my house, but when I arrived, he wasn't there. I don't know where he is now. I swear!"

"Fine, I believe you. I won't wake Mom up," said Beth.
"We need to go to the abandoned church to find him. Maybe he is still hiding there thinking his kidnapper is looking for him," said Annabelle.

The three children went to the abandoned church to look for Charlie. After hearing the cries from Beth's cousins, Charlie was sure he wasn't being fooled again by the mysterious man. His family was really looking for him. He ran out from where he was hiding and jumped straight into Beth's arms.

The two friends, once reunited, never lost sight of each other again. They stopped playing hide and seek and replaced it with hundreds of other fun games.

The End.

The Scary Girl!

In the dark forest there stood a scary girl, right in the middle. It felt dark and scary for a moment.

The girl had creepy sounds within her body. Sometimes she just stood there and that would make me run away.

One day the scary girl also ran away because there was a demon after her and she hoped to get away from him. But the demon ran after her.

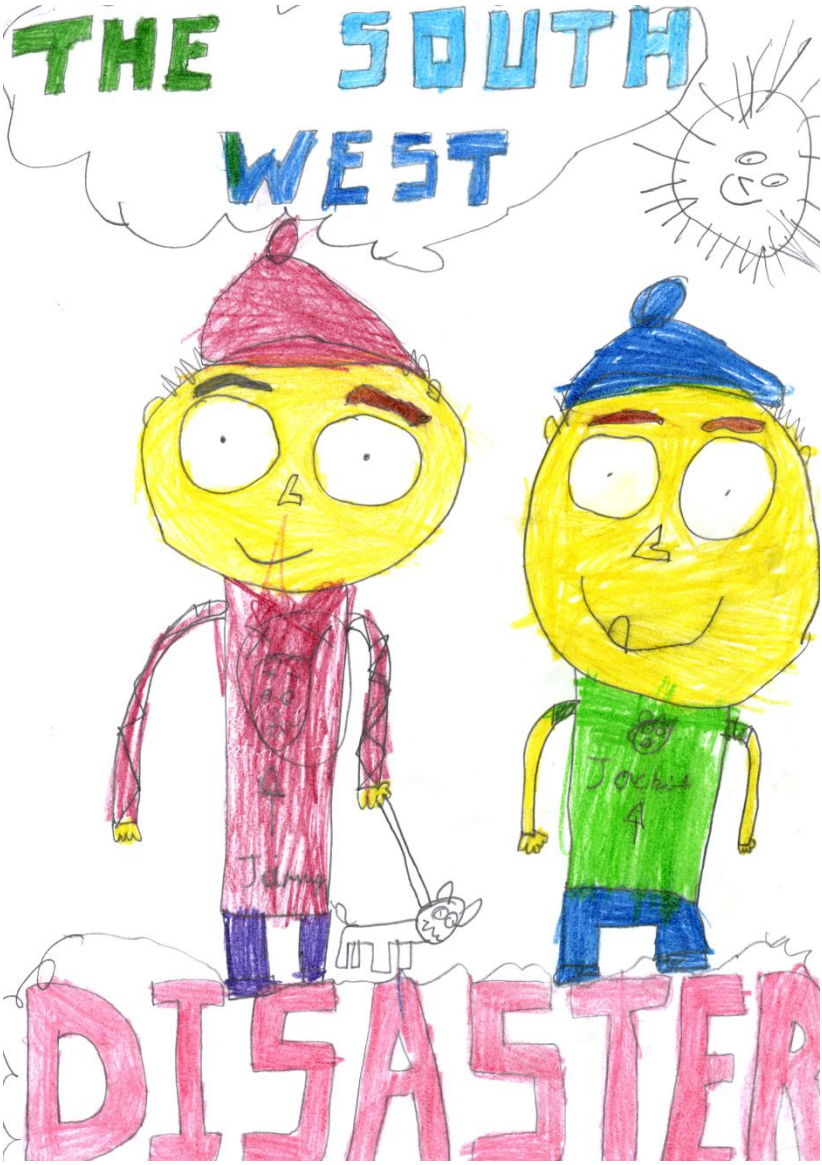
Two children went into the forest but it was scary and very dark and when they saw the scary girl they ran away. They weren't quite sure why they ran away, as she just looked like a girl with a white dress with black dots on it but she didn't wear any shoes.

When the demon caught up with the girl, he went into her body but the girl managed to expel him from her body and she was stronger than him so she became the demon's king.

The girl didn't like being the demon's king so she drank a magic drink so that everything went back to normal and she could live an ordinary life.

The End.

The South West Disaster



Jimmy and Jackie had been friends for a long time…9 years to be precise. Both of their Mums were best friends so they had basically known each other their entire lives. They are cool and at school they have a girlfriend and they are funny and silly. Out of school they get themselves into trouble with the police and other people.

Some people think that they are losers and they get bullied a lot at school and then they rob people out of frustration. Being bullied angers and upsets them.

One day they were on top of a building and the owner saw them and he was really mad so he pulled them out of the building.

Then one day they were walking down the alleyway when they were suddenly robbed by people who also poured paint on them so they ran away.

One day they were playing football and they'd also taken their dog for a walk. Jackie's Mum came up and said that they were moving house to the Seaside town of Skegness. Unfortunately, this caused several arguments between Jimmy and Jackie. However, they eventually decided That they would remain friends and keep in touch by messaging each other.

The End.

The Story about the Hotel

Chapter 1

This is a story about a haunted hotel. No-one who knows it is haunted ever goes to stay there. There are ten people in the story and, to start with, they didn't know it was haunted. First, two people go to get food and the killer follows them, he runs after them and catches and kills them.

The remaining eight guests see the bodies on the ground and blood, but they don't leave the hotel for two weeks as they can't find a way out.

Chapter 2

A short while after he killed the two people the killer was hungry again. He found three people on the third floor, kills them, and then comes downstairs. The police enter carrying guns and catch the killer and put him in prison.

Chapter 3

The killer's family come to the prison but the killer doesn't care. When he was eleven years old his parents abandoned him on the streets. He wants to get revenge on his parents and also to make his boss millions of pounds.

Chapter 4

The Killer escapes and goes back to the hotel. One thing he is sure of is that there are the ghosts of the people he killed in the building. The killer is attacked by the ghosts and by the people who are still alive in the hotel who have become very strong. The killer runs out of the hotel and the last people alive go after him and lock him up in the strongest prison in the world.

Chapter 5

The killer is in prison got 25 years and he doesn't see any of his family in all that time. The other prisoners bully him so he knows what it feels like to be attacked for no reason. When he got out, he was not as he used to be. He has become a nice guy and he lives a good life. This is all of the story. Bye!

The End.

The Story of Amaya

It all started at this dreadful school. I moved to secondary school as I had finished my year 6; my results weren't as good as I wanted them to be. This might be because my Mum is ill and keeps forgetting things. She doesn't even remember the house we have lived in for 5 years. The house is dark and so quiet you could hear a pin drop. The wooden floor creaks as Mum walks to the sofa.

Each day I come home and make my Mum and I some sandwiches with cheese and ham and my Mum always asks:
"Honey, what's for dinner?"

I always reply:
"Ham and cheese sandwiches, Mum." I say this loudly with a sigh. Will my Mum ever get better?

I go to school but I space out and get distracted by thoughts of my Mum. Each day I am bullied because of my hijab and my eyes, I have one green eye and one blue eye and they tell me I'm a fake or an alien.

We had an English exam – my weakest subject – and I got 65%, came home and cried. My Mum heard me faintly wailing and she came up the creaking stairs. I heard her footsteps and quickly wiped away my tears before she came in the room. She asked me:

"Amaya, why are you crying?" She sounded glum.
I quickly responded:
"I'm alright, I'll make dinner soon."

My Mum went down the golden brown stairs and read my "First ABCs" book. I started crying as she sounded out the letters. I wanted to tell her about my results as she always told me to tell her about whatever happened at school but I couldn't make my Mum upset about my score on the test so I had to lie. I couldn't do it! I told my Mum I got 90% and that the teachers were proud of me.

My Mum was really happy to hear the news as she put her book down. Inside my head I felt as though I was crying. I have to pay the bills. I am so stressed. The house is already dark enough. I told my Mum:
"Mum, it's time for bed" and I fixed her bed as she liked it.

I looked in my piggy bank to see if I had enough money to pay the bills. I counted every penny I had and it came to £105.51p. This was £50 less than I needed to pay the bills. I looked in my Mum's purse and only found 50p.

"Why do I always have such bad luck?" I thought "I wish my life was easier." I got ready for bed as it was school the next day. I felt fed up as I had chemistry, science, English and maths – algebra – and there would be another test in five weeks. I have ADHD and never concentrate in class. I finished the classes as normal and went home.

Chapter 2 - A Strange Glow

There was a strange glow near my Mum.
"What is that glow" I said feeling confused. Mum answered:
"Honey? What glow?"
"Never mind" I said with a sigh.

The strange glow looked as though it had hair, even wings. I looked closer when my Mum went into her bedroom. I said:

“Who are you?” to the strange glow.

I’m not sure if I imagined this but I thought the glow said:
“I’m Twilight. Who are you?”
“I- I- I’m Amaya” I stuttered “Where did you come from Twilight?”
Twilight answered “I came from the sky.”
“Why are you here?” I asked.
“I’m here on a quest to capture the dragons.”
“Well, let’s get to it” I said.

We left the house and walked down the dark narrow street where the pavement was thin and bins take up all the space and suspicious looking men looked at us. We quickly ran into a cave and walked down the forever stairs and dimly saw a fire and a long green tail stretching on either side of the cave. We slowly crept in the cave closer and closer to the dragon and Twilight used her magic and made another cave from her clever mind and captured the dragons.

We called the police and told them where they could find the last dragons in the whole world. Twilight had finished her mission until the reset day……

The End.

The Story of Football

A long time ago, a game started in Britain called “football” and became more and more popular over the years as many more people started to play it. Many people know players with a lot of talent like Ronaldo, Cristiano Ronaldo, Lionel Messi, Karim Benzema, Lev Yashin and many more.

There are some big talents that most people don't know, like Gheorge Hagi, Adrian Mutu, Brahim Diaz and many more. There are big clubs like Barcelona, Real Madrid, Liverpool, Manchester United and Manchester City, but there are some small clubs like Sevilla, Aston Villa and Brighton, they all have a style of play that is unique from others.

I decided to write all of this because I love football and I will become a professional footballer and donate to people in need and my idol is and will always be Cristiano Ronaldo Dos Santos Aveiro. Suuuuuiiiiii!!!! My favourite Romanian player is Gheorge Hagi.

The End.

The Two Brothers

Planet Zog is a world of trouble and planet Zog is a watch because it controls time. Planet Zog is 40 times bigger than our sun. John Park lives there and he got married to a dwarf but he isn't happy because he's jealous of his brother who's married to a giant called Kaylen. John likes Kaylen better than his wife so he decides to get her.

BOOM! A vault blows up and John gets away with £150 million pounds and is never caught. John Park is a person who like to commit crimes and he has done 14 crimes and it has become a habit.

John convinced the police the crimes were done by his brother Timay who went to jail for them and now is ready to go to war with his brother in revenge. While Timay was in jail, John seduced Kaylen and then got married to her.

When he got out of jail Timay kidnapped all of John's children. He wants to remarry Kaylen and, if that doesn't happen, John's children will all be forced to stay with him.

John keeps apologising to Timay about marrying Kaylen and they reach a deal to each go back to their original wives. But John needs Kaylen so he jumps off a building killing Timay.

Thirty years later Kaylen finds a magical gem which gives the power of rebirth, but it will only work if she kills John. Kaylen poisons John and he dies.

Timay and Kaylen live happily ever after.

The End.

The Unsolved Crime of The Dead Men

Chapter 1 Where It All Began

One sunny morning, a girl called Amethyst went to school, like any other day, with her little sister called Crystal. On their way there, in the blink of an eye, Crystal got grabbed by a group of men and thrown into an unknown van, before her sister had time to help her. Immediately after, Amethyst called the police constable. When they arrived, Amethyst told them all she knew about Crystal's kidnap. She cried all day and all night until she was 19 years old. That day everything changed because she thought of something,

"What if I kill all the men until someone confesses where Crystal is."

Chapter 2 - When the Crime Began

Once in a while, Amethyst would bring a man into her house for a date in her apartment. She then would get a knife to threaten the man she brought in. If the man said, "I don't know where your sister is," he would get stabbed on the spot by Amethyst. She killed men one after the other until, one of them, after he got threatened said,

"Okay, Okay, don't kill me. I know she is being hidden at the address X146Y322Z442."

However, Amethyst decided to kill him anyway, for she didn't want to leave behind any evidence.

After she arrived at the address, Amethyst killed everyone there. Once she had found Crystal, they ran home together.

Final Chapter - Amethyst

When they got back, Amethyst disposed of the body. However, the police found the place where Amethyst hid the body and opened an investigation. Before midnight, the police succeeded in finding a lead in the investigation. They found a fingerprint on the clothes of the body Amethyst and her sister decided to escape and ran away together before they could get caught. They ran in the middle of the night and hid inside a forest. While running through the forest, the two sisters found an abandoned house and hid inside. They decided to spend the rest of their life together in that abandoned house. The police never found them, and Amethyst never killed anyone else again.

The End

The War between Parasites and Humans

The parasites have taken over the world. One of the last survivors has to shoot the parasites to survive. The parasites can take control of humans if not executed within 5 seconds.

So, the battle against the parasites got stronger. The remaining humans met to make a plan to kill the parasites but, unfortunately, there was a titan parasite which had lasers and the humans had to run and hide. Then a Speakerman came out of the shadows and he had big men to kill the parasites. But the parasites could fly so the men made a tank to kill them. Then a mutant parasite fought with a titan Speakerman who was fighting with a titan parasite. Then 2 flying parasites attacked the titan Speakerman. He grabbed one of them but there were more and so he was attacked even more.

Lots of people were dead and it looked as though there was no more hope. But then the titan with the laser shot at the titan parasite and everything went dark. The titan parasite flew off towards the sunrise and then there was a big bang.

The city was no longer infested with parasites but the problem wasn't over as there were other cities infested with them. The titans needed a long time to recover from fighting the parasites so they couldn't help the other cities for a long while. But they do know how to fight the parasites and win.

The End.

The Weird Wedding

Chapter 1

Once upon a time, there was a young girl, called Lucy. She was 19 years old. Lucy had blond hair and brown eyes, and she loved to wear dresses. One day, when she went to the shop, she met a guy, called Adam. Lucy took his phone number. Every evening she phoned him. Then, came a day, when Adam asked her if she wanted to go on a date with him to a fancy restaurant. They planned to meet up at six in the evening.

Chapter 2

It took two hours for Lucy to get ready. She said, “Oh what colour should I wear? I will wear red. Everyone wears red for a date.” After choosing the dress she did her hair and makeup. She got in her pink car and drove for 30 minutes to the restaurant. At the entrance, Adam was waiting for her in an elegant suit. For dinner, both of them had meatballs and ice cream for dessert. Once they finished eating, they kissed, which was very sweet. At the end of the date, Adam asked her if she wanted to marry him.

Chapter 3

Before the wedding, Lucy went to choose her shoes and dress. Adam let Lucy choose the wedding decoration and food as well. For the cake, she chose one that was in a heart shape.

Chapter 4

As soon as Adam arrived at the wedding, he walked to his bride and said, “I always want to be with you. I will love you.” Then, the newly wedded couple kissed. They had a dance ring and went partying. Adam and Lucy had an amazing dance. They had cake as well.

Chapter 5

In the end, Adam and Lucy had children, who they loved very much. They all made a wonderful family. Adam and Lucy always went on walks together, even when they were 40 and 42. They loved each other very much.

The End.

The Worst of the Worst

One year there was an incident.

Ruby was an outgoing girl who lived in North Carolina with her Mum, but her biological Dad worked at Greggs and was not home very much.

One day they a random man appeared. No one knew where he came from or who he was. He started to lick his lips at Caca pig (Ruby's Mum) and he looked a bit jealous of Bling Bling Man (Ruby's Dad).

A couple of days later Bling Bling Man hadn't come home for two whole nights. They couldn't go looking for him because Ruby was already asleep. The next morning, Ruby got dressed as usual with Caca Pig and then they went looking for Dad…

They found him dead in the forest that he normally used to stroll around. Ruby screamed louder than a whistle and started crying.

Mum cried:
"WHO OR WHAT KILLED HIM?"

Two weeks later there was a funeral for him. The random stranger was there in a Nike tracksuit and not a real suit. Caca Pig Brought Ruby with her to ask him what his name was. It sounded like a long name, something like: Quan di dongle dingle.
Ruby mumbled "Twenty grand and he comes in a Nike tracksuit – Ugh!."

After that, at the end of the funeral, Quandodongledingle asked Caca Pig out on a date at Nandos to make her happy.

Mum said: “That will do, thank you for asking, it’s a yes” and Quandodongledingle said:
“9.40 earliest, 12pm latest”.

When Ruby and her Mum got home, Caca Pig got dressed in a wine red dress and rang Ruby’s baby-sitter.

The Date

Caca Pig met Quandodongledingle at Nandos. She took him home and got a bit tipsy – well let’s say drunk.

The morning after Quandodongledingle woke up in Caca Pig’s bed and asked her to marry him. Caca Pig thought it was a bit too early and she couldn’t because she couldn’t forget Bling Bling man. She politely asked Quandodongledingle to leave the house. Sadly, Caca Pig shut her door and silently cried. A couple of hours later Ruby’s Mum wrote a message about her life it said:

“Dear Diary. Well, this isn’t really a diary but this is how my life is going. I don’t know what to say to myself. I was happy when my husband was alive and I don’t even know what happened, why he died. Why me why? People don’t get it that life goes too fast.”

So, this is how Caca Pig’s life goes at the moment. No one knows what is still yet to come for her, Ruby (who is only 5 years’ old) and Quandodongledingle (the secret murderer).

The End.

True Colours

As Charlotte sauntered through the school corridors, her devious face gleamed in the sunlight. She proudly explained to her best friend, Milena, about the horrible, horrific acts she had just done. But then, her shining, emerald-green eyes widened with fear.

“What’s wrong, Charlotte?” asked Milena.

The strictest teacher in the entire prison of a school beckoned Charlotte towards her classroom, this was full of the best-behaved children in the school.

“So, not only you skipped class, but you also attacked a younger child. This is unacceptable! You are expelled! I never want to see you ever again!” shouted Mrs Leen.

Although Charlotte could act terribly, she wasn’t very tough, neither emotionally nor physically. By the end of her scolding, she was in absolute tears, she couldn’t hold them back.

Later that day, Charlotte’s mum, Rebecca, told her daughter to pack her bags as they were going to move houses. Whilst Mum was driving to Edinburgh, she gave Charlotte a lecture about ‘being nice’ because having to move houses every time she got expelled wasn’t nice. Rebecca told her daughter the next time she would be expelled, she would have to pack her bags and get out of her house. Charlotte went very silent. Six hours passed straight without a word between the two of them. The awkward silence was making Charlotte ever so scared, but she ended up falling asleep. The silence was disturbed by her reckless snore.

She had transferred schools six times already. Would this time be her last, she wondered.

Thankfully, Charlotte listened to her mother, and it became a sort of daily routine. Every day she plastered a fake smile on her face because if she didn't, she would get into trouble. Her life was starting to get well, she was popular and had many friends. She was known as the role model, the goody two shoes of the town, always ready to help, always trying her best. What could be hiding under her skin, a beautiful person, or a monster?

Day after day, Charlotte did her makeup and hair, placed a fake smile on her face and went to school. Same old thing every day, till she got very tired. It may seem like a simple task, but she had to fake her personality 24 hours per day. Luckily, she was a very good actor. Charlotte was almost like an influencer; everyone was always following her every move.

"I'm so sick of it!" yelled Charlotte pulling off her disguise. "This is not who I really am. I am not a nice little girl. I'm feisty, and I'll fight to the end of the line," and so she did. She only let one person win over her in her life, and with that person, she got married.

She whispered in his ear, "After all, none of this was needed. If I had friends who appreciated me for who I was, I could have been myself and liked it."

He started crying, and so did she.

"I promise I will always be your friend, your best friend. I understand you, and I always will," said her husband.

“Next time I will show my true colours from the beginning. If people don’t like me, then they can deal with it,” concluded Charlotte.

The End.

War of the Worlds 2005

It is a normal day. Rey is finishing work at the construction site. He will go home after five hours of work. Rey, who is 27 years old, lives with his nephew Robbie, who is about 16 years old, and his niece Rachel, who is only 9 years old.

Two minutes after Rey gets home, lighting strikes in the same place ten times in a row. Everyone goes to look to see what is happening. Ten seconds later, the ground breaks and shakes. Everyone rushes away from the area where the ground is breaking. A hole appears, where the lighting struck. It is 50 meters long and 25 meters wide. Suddenly, a robotic foot lands on the ground and, after two seconds, the other foot comes. The two feet start moving, and one of them hits a building. The building, estimated to be 125 meters tall, comes crashing to the ground.

Twenty seconds after the robot raises itself fully up, it uses its horn to make screeching powerful noises, “Brvv, Brvvu, Brvuuu.” Ten seconds after using its horn, its claws come out and shoot lasers at the people watching. Everyone starts running.

Rey decides to leave Britain with his niece and nephew in the car and go to Athens in Greece, where the robots have not been seen. To escape not being shot by the lasers, Rey goes past people who are begging to get inside their car which is going about 25 miles per hour. However, in order to avoid colliding with a police van, the car swerves right and crashes into a lamppost. Everyone on the streets surrounds their car, people start blocking their windshields and banging on all of their windows. Rachel starts screaming while Rey and Robbie are pulled out of the car. Rey takes his gun from his boot and shoots three times in the air. Everyone starts running away from the car. Rey secures the two children back in the car and starts driving again.

Once they get hungry, Rey stops at a restaurant. While they are eating, someone tries to steal their car, but Rey and the children are faster and get back in and start driving to the docks. They ran after the last boat leaving for France, but it is too late. The boat has already started to move. However, Rey and the children don't give up and run after the boat and manage to jump aboard. The robots try to stop the boat from leaving by trying to laser the people in the front, but the boat succeeds in running away before they lose anyone to the machines again.

Five days after the invasion, Rey, Robbie and Rachel arrive safely in Athens. By this time there are already ten of these robots in Britain. It takes another five days just to destroy one with 115 rocket launches. However, once they know how to destroy one, the countries come together and use all their rockets to destroy the remaining robots in another five days. Once the danger is completely over, Rey, Robbie and Rachel return to Britain to take back their lives from where they left them, before the robots first attacked.

The End.

Where is the Treasure?

The sound of the birds in the trees was deafening and the trees were moving and bright green. The animals were rubbing against the bright green trees when along came 2 boys who had a map with red crosses marked on it.

They thought they had found the right spot where the treasure was buried so they started digging. They ended up with just a hole by which time they were hungry and mad so they tried digging another hole. Again, they just had an empty hole and were hungrier and madder.

They found the place marked by the last red cross and they started digging and this time they found it. There was SOOO much gold. They were happy and glad that they'd brought two big dogs with them to protect them.

The End.

Where's the Heart Gone?

Chapter 1 – Figuring Out

Everyone thought Monalisa was a grumpy little girl and a miserable, sad, nasty and a mean girl. She didn't know there was such a thing as a heart. So, she went to the doctor and was given a beautiful ruby red heart and for the whole time she was there everyone felt bad for calling her names and bought her loads of gifts and someone gave her £1,000 and someone else gave her £10,000 and now she said:
"I am so rich now! Yes, Yes, Yes!"

For two minutes she carried on celebrating that she had been given so much money but then she thought:

"Wait, Wait, Wait," I should be celebrating having my heart back. When I found I didn't have one I went and got one and that is what I should celebrate. So, she decided to throw a party and to celebrate her heart and said:

"Yes, Yes, Yes, Yes!"

Chapter 2 – Start to Celebrate!

An hour later she started calling her friends and her family to celebrate having her lovely ruby red heart. When all the people turned up they started to dance but she started to cry because, just for a moment, she had forgotten that she had her heart.

Chapter 3 – The Heart of Joy

Ten minutes later she started to make a delicious drink for the whole party and they all enjoyed it. She started to love her friends and family and she couldn't believe that she had ever been so happy in her life before.

Chapter 4 – Love Blossoms

Now that she has learned to love her family and friends she made them another drink and then went to lie down because her back, legs and neck were all hurting. When she was laying down a boy got a blanket for her and she started to fall…….

Chapter 5 – How it all Started in love. She had started to fall in love with Louis and they started to hang out together. After about a week Monalisa and Louis became girlfriend and boyfriend and she discovered that her heart had been a romantic heart all along.

The End.

Who was the Murderer of Richard?

One day, Bob got tired of Richard making fun of him. So, Bob decided to kill Richard while he was vibing with a song. When Richard looked away Bob stabbed him and then ran away without his bloody knife. As he left the house, he felt scared but he kept on running hidden by his cloak of invisibility and he hid in his secret bunker for days and weeks in fear.

He found a plastic surgeon so no-one would know who he was and he attended Richard's funeral. This made him depressed, so he killed Richard's friends and this made him happy.

Little did he know there was one person who knew about his killing spree who shook him and he died. Bob was killed by Grimace, a purple monster, but he randomly came back to life and discovered he had developed telekinesis. He threw Grimace with his mind. All the gods tried to fight him but he won all the battles and he now ruled the world and then he ruled over galaxies and he didn't stop there….he took over the whole Universe and finally…..

….the…

…MULTIVERSE.

The End.

World War II Breakout

It all began when Adolph Hitler was born. He was the leader of the Germans. When he grew up, he realised that his country had lost the last war, which he didn't like. He always wanted to win a war, since he was very jealous. So, after he become the leader of the government, he started World War II. Hitler started killing people just so he could win the war. He was evil!

Adolph Hitler hated Jewish people. He was cruel and he trapped Jewish people in prisons, where he killed them. He was a wise man but changed into a jealous one, after which he become a horrible person.

Hitler mostly wore green leather jackets and black business trousers. He had light blue piercing eyes with natural blonde hair, but he liked it brown, so he turned it brown. Plus, he had a cool brown moustache. Hitler died in 1945, but in what way, nobody knows.

The End.

You Are Safe with Me

Chapter 1 Friends

“Be cool,” said Kayla to herself. She started taking loud breaths. “You know what? I can do it! I am brave!” She marched to the popular group of girls in her school.

“Hello!” shouted Kayla.
“What do you want?” questioned Ava.
“Hi, I am Kayla, and I am 11 years old,” said Kayla.
“We are 100 years old,” said Lyla.
“OMG! Really?” shouted Kayla.
“Of course not, dummy,” said Becky.
“Can I join your group?” asked Kayla.
“No, I mean…fine, sure,” said Ava,“but there are rules you will need to follow. First, you must tell us everything. Second, you have to try to be pretty and third, you must smoke, not vape,” explained Becky.
“But I don’t smoke,” said Kayla.
“Of course not,” said Lila rolling her eyes.
“Well…here. Try it!” shouted Ava.

Kayla put the cigarette in her mouth and took a deep breath. The smoke started curling in the air and Kayla’s throat began to burn.

“You are fine!” said Ava.
“I…don’t know if I am…,” whispered Kayla.

Chapter 2 - Suck It Up

“Don’t be a baby!” shouted Becky.
“Kids inside, now!” demanded Miss Kern, who was on playtime duty.

“Hey, are you ok?” said Aria.
“Yeah, just leave me alone,” replied Kayla and went inside.

After school, Kayla went out with her new group of friends.

“Hey, why is your throat so red?” asked Becky.
“I think it was the cigarette,” replied Kayla.
“God, suck it up!” said Ava.
“You are so weak,” said Lila.
“Guys let’s just go,” said Ava.

They abandoned Kayla, and she started crying.

“Hey, are you ok?” questioned Aria.
“Y-yes,” replied Kayla wiping her tears.
“No, you are not. Why are you letting them treat you like this?” asked Aria.
“Leave me alone!” shouted Kayla.
“No, you need to protect yourself. You can trust me. You are safe with me,” said Aria.

Chapter 3 Protection

A few days later, Kayla was out again with the popular girls.

“Hey! God, stop eating that sandwich!” shouted Ava.
“W-why?” asked Kayla.
“W-why?” mocked Ava.
“You need to eat less. You are too fat!” shouted Becky.

The whole group of girls started laughing and Lila pushed Kayla out of her seat.

“Aw… poor baby!” said Lila.
“S-S-Stop!” cried Kayla.
“Hm…no!” replied Becky.

“Hey, she said to stop!” shouted Aria.
“What? You don’t know who we are? We are the popular girls, and we are probably even older than you,” explained Lila.
“Actually, you are 12 and I am 13. So, leave her alone or it will get messy!” threaten Aria.

Chapter 4 – Holiday

Since that day, Kayla stopped being friends with the popular girls. She started hanging out just with Aria during the school breaks. The mean girls never bullied Kayla again, and she even gave up smoking and the bad eating habits she picked up from them. That year, when school finally finished, Aria and Kayla went on a holiday to the beach. Since that summer, they grew very close and became inseparable.

The End.