Allahawanga Junior 3 and the Evil Octopus

Chapter 1

In the middle of the Pacific Ocean there was a lonely diamond island where Allahawanga Junior the third had just woken up from a nice dream. He had been dreaming of eating pizza. When he woke up, he was excited because he thought it would be a great day. When he got up, he cooked octopus for breakfast and he enjoyed it.

But what he didn't know was that there was going to be a mission that day. He went to his secret base under the water and his boss said,

“Are you ok today?”

He said “yes”.

He put his shoes on and he went into his special flying car, his boss had told him there was a big octopus in the sea.

His car flew over the water and the he saw the big octopus.

He got out his weapons. He jumped out his flying car and the octopus caught him and he started slashing at the big octopus's tentacles. The Octopus got mad. Allahawanga started flying again and his laser eyes burnt the octopus. The octopus after gave up after a while and started healing itself. Then his slimy tentacles grabbed Allahwanga Junior the third around the chest and he squeezed him so hard that Allahwanga Junior the third couldn't breathe. He shot at the tentacles with his laser eyes, flesh burned and slime came out and the octopus was defeated.

Allahwanga Junior the third had a party at his house.

This is Allahawanga's big adventure, facing his fears using his superpowers.

The End.

Christian and the Invisible Water Town

Christian Raid

Christian was a young man. He'd just turned eighteen and he had no idea about his future or of dangers coming his way. He lived in The Invisible Water Town where life is peaceful, cold, sunny on some days and green.

One day he was in bed sleeping when his mom called him downstairs. He went down and sat at the dinner table and ate his breakfast and then went to get dressed. He found a pair of jeans and a hoodie and went outside for a little walk around the park.

Suddenly, he saw a huge mysterious creature under the crystal-clear floor. He looked at this surreal creature and then ran home looking as though he'd seen a ghost. He was mumbling something under his heavy breathing while looking for his mom. She was nowhere to be seen. He found a note and when he opened it written in red paint it said,

"If you want her back give us 2.3million pounds".

He looked at it with a mixture of anger and sadness. He crumpled it up and threw it in the bin looking as if he's about to cry but he held his tears in. He paced around the room thinking of a plan to save his mom. He knows he doesn't have the money.

So, beware of where you walk and stay away from the North Sea.

The End.

Conner JR Finds the Power Shark

Chapter 1: 1758

In Paris I'd just woken up from my mid-day nap. I put on my joggers, shirt, socks and my coat. Then my dad said, "Let go fishing Conner Jr".

I said "OK, I'll get the fishing rods and let's get on the ship".

An hour later we had caught some fish.

"We need to get more fish then we can get back to Paris," said Dad.

But something happened below decks. My dad said, "Conner Jr go check what's wrong".

I found a leak. I boarded it up then I heard shouting from above. I went up and then I saw my dad was not there. So, I grabbed my spear. Then I saw a mark made by a shark's teeth.....

Chapter 2: Find my Dad

It had been too many days without my dad. Now it just me. My mum had been killed by a man and my sister had vanished. I decided it was my mission to find my sister and my dad.

I started to get the stuff I needed and I grabbed my picture of my Mum and Dad then I start to cry.

I can't do this by myself. I need to ask my friends for help.

I said "We need armour and before our journey starts. We need to get some weapons too".

Quickly we boarded a ship.

"Theo you are on the wheel, Alex you man the cannons, George you are with me".

George said "Look, blood!"

Yeah, it was blood. Following the blood could be the way to somewhere. an hour later we saw nothing just this, a sleeping girl.

Half an hour later she woke then she got a knife and I said,

"Are we good?"

Then she said "OK. My name is Jasmin".

I told her there was armour in the back. Jasmin said OK and a minute later Jasmin is back from the back room. She said she was 18 years old and asked how old we were.

Conner Jr went first and said "I am 18 years old".

Theo said, "I am 17 years old".

George said, "I am 17 too.

Chapter 3 The Kingdom

An hour later we found the shark kingdom with evil humans and we went through the entrance. Jasmin came with me and Theo and George stayed on the ship.

An evil human said "Let's fight".

I said "OK, if you give me my sister and my dad back".

Jasmin said "Do not do it Conner Jr" but I said,

"I have to".

We started fighting and his first punch made me bleed. Then I hit him. An hour later we are weak but then the kingdom started breaking down. Jasmin got me back to the ship. Then as night came down Jasmin said,

"Conner Jr"

"Then I said "Yeah, what do you want to say to me?"

"Do you think we could more than friends?"

I said "I do not know".

Then she said "OK" then we looked up at the stars and then we went to sleep. In the morning, we said good morning then we went back to find the new kingdom. But we found more blood and then we found more people, but they were dead. We were scared, but I said we would be OK.

Chapter 4: The Army

We saw 4 boats from the UK and Paris. I shouted stop!!!! Then they all looked at me then they came on my boat and asked why we had shouted. We told them about the Shark kingdom. Then we all went to the kingdom. I was leading and I shouted,

"Charge!!!!!"

Then there was blood everywhere then everyone agreed it should be the King vs me, Conner Jr. So, then I stabbed him dead.

Then Jasmin came to hug me then we kissed. Then we went home.

Chapter 5: Finally

Two years later Conner Jr and Jasmin had three kids.

This is the story of a teenager's search for his family - will they survive?

The End

CONNER JR

CONNER

Frankie is on an SOS Journey

In the middle of the ocean, Frankie was stranded.

He was fishing on a boat in the daytime and when Frankie was sleeping, out of nowhere, a giant wave came up and washed him off his boat. He was ice cold and he was getting pushed around and waves were crashing in his face. So, he tried to flip the boat over and finally succeeded. He jumped in and tried to get dry but he was still cold, he was freezing cold, but he still tried to fish and then went to the motor and started it up and went to land.

But there was nothing there. He woke up and realised he was still on the boat.

Eventually, after rowing for 25 days he found a deserted island in the ocean. At first, he worried he would starve after all the fish he'd caught were gone. Finally, he realised that there were coconuts and they can be eaten and their leaves also come in handy and he made a roof out of them.

A girl turns up after 9 years. They get married and they have 3 children and they then live happily ever after...

But, in the middle of the ocean he's on a boat...

The End.

Once upon a time Maylock lived in a small town called Grimsby. Maylock was a very happy humecat (half human and half cat) with a half white and a half orange face. Her fur was soft and smooth to the touch and she had the most amazing long black whiskers and fur hidden underneath her overalls.

One morning she was very hungry and as she loved to eat fish, mostly salmon, she went to the harbour at the docks and saw a massive pile of fish on a boat.

She strode towards the boat of fish, but there was a problem. The problem was that there were five or six humans guarding the boat.

So, Maylock ran and jumped off the docks into the water. She swam towards the boat and successfully made it and got the fish. She enjoyed eating it in her favourite spot in the bushes right next to another boat of fish.

After eating she realised that she still was not happy, because she was the only humecat in Grimsby, so she decided to set off on a mission to go and find another one like her.

After days of not finding another humecat like her around Grimsby, May finally found another one in the town down the road. She was happy to find another of her kind she asked the humecat if he wanted some fish to share. Her new humecat friend was called Ben and he told her that his parents died and that he had not had fish in years. So, he was happy that he was offered some fish!

They became very close friends and they decided to travel the world together, and at the same time they were collecting more humecats like themselves.

The same time all of the humecats were eating fish and having a lot of fun.

So, someone eating fish alone then finds friends through a journey to find more humecats and to create a community.

The Moody Margaret

Chapter One

It's a nice day out at the beach. The beach is warm and I can smell the nice clear blue sea. Some kids are playing on the beach and making sand castles. It's so hot that Margaret is going to go in the sea for a swim.

Margaret went into the sea but, suddenly, she was being strangled by some seaweed. She was fuming. But then it started to choke her but someone got help and the rescue boat came and saved her. But she was still fuming.

Chapter Two

Oh, what a nice day! The sun is shining and I can feel it hot on my back as I'm sitting up against the window playing Block Blast. Margaret might go to see her all her little and her big cousins because they are all staying at her aunt's house tonight to have a massive sleepover party. Her aunt is getting them all loads of sweets and snacks.

Chapter Three

Margaret didn't go to her aunt's sleepover because she was going to one at her friend's house. She got her bag ready for the sleepover because she was so excited and she couldn't wait. A few hours later she got a phone call from her friend and she thought:

"Yay, it's time to go and have the sleepover",

Margaret was so happy she was jumping about but then she answered the phone and said:

“Hello, I can’t wait for your sleepover. What time is your sleepover?”

But her friend Oliva replied:

“I’m so sorry, but I can’t have my sleepover today”.

“OK” said Margaret

“I might see you another day” said Oliva,

“Yes, see you another day” said Margaret acting as though she didn’t seem bothered but, actually, she was not impressed.

The next day she got a phone call from Oliva:

“Do you want to have a sleepover today?”

“Yes” said Margaret “but you’d better have it today”.

“Yes, in fact I will come and get you know and then we can go and buy some snacks, sweets and drinks for later” replied Oliva.

This made Margaret so happy. So off they went.

But OMG! The sleepover goes wrong.....

The North Sea

Chapter 1

Once upon a time Didi Drake was the best fisherman in Great Grimsby. When his family were told that his crew is off to the North Sea they started to panic.

Drake's Dad said,

I'm worried that the boat will crash".

Drake said to his family,

"Everything will be okay and don't panic. We'll be off in the next 48hrs".

Chapter 2

In the 1950s there was only time for fishing and boats setting off to sea and catching fish for supper. No-one would be able to eat until they caught some fish.

Because Great Grimsby was the biggest fishing port, when the fishermen were on the boats they felt alive, busy on the sea catching as many fish as they could. They sailed them to the dock before they left shore again and went into the North Sea.

Chapter 3

Life on the North Sea is life threatening because the waves go higher than the boats. So that's why people are so scared of the sea.

The North Sea has some of the scariest sea life, like Killer Whales and Megalodon Sharks, Stingrays and Blue Whales.

When he thought of this, Didi Drake was getting more scared every second, he kept thinking that the boat would crash in the middle of the North Sea.

Chapter4

When they leave the fishing port, they hear news that there has been a terrorist attack on some fishermen by some pirates. The pirates made the fisherman walk of the edge of the boat and then they fell in the sea and drowned and that was what kicked off Didi Drake's anxiety. He didn't want to go to sea anymore but his friend Jake made him go because he had already been picked to go. There was time for him to say his last goodbye to his family and spend time with his friends and other people of his skin.

As they sailed it started to become hotter. Didi is counting the hours, he only has 10 until his boat reaches the shore.

Chapter5

As they started packing up their clothes, there was a disruption on the North Sea. There was a storm heading towards the boat. Then Didi Drake's crew was panicking, they all think his boat will sink just like the Titanic. He is scared of the sea he doesn't want this to be his last minutes alive. He found a boy called Dede and they became friends. Dede made him go overboard and Didi survived and so was not scared any more.

Chapter 6

When they returned to the docks, Didi Drake realised the sea really isn't scary and once you get back you can see your family again. He decided he didn't need to worry about the North Sea again. Only one person had died and that was because he jumped off the boat to catch a fish!

This story is about the North Sea and why it is not scary conquering it and your fears.

The End.
