Deady the Teddy

Once upon a time there was a bear called Ted and he lived with a little boy called Matthew. Matthew loved Ted and they always played together and had nap times together. They even went to school together. Ted felt like the luckiest bear that ever lived, and thought that he could not ask for a better life.

But one day, everything changed. Matthew turned ten years old and his friends told him that he was too old to have a teddy. They laughed at him and made jokes until Matthew decided he didn't want a teddy bear any more as he was a grow-up boy. He threw Ted in the bin and never thought about him again.

Ted could not believe what had happened. He climbed out of the bin and noticed he was covered in dirt and muck.

“This is what I get for loving silly humans,” he thought to himself.

With his heart full of anger, he ran into the woods and swore he’d get revenge on all humans.

Years passed and Ted became the scourge of the woods! Children stayed away from the old rundown house where it was said Ted lived. The wooden house had no windows and a big KEEP OUT sign on the door. Pets would go missing, people’s gardens were vandalised and parents and children would find traps set in the woods which made it unsafe to play.

Ted became known as Deady Teddy and eventually nobody ever went into the woods to play.

But one day, a little girl who was new to the town walking in the woods. Her name was Lisa and she was very sad. She was crying because she missed her old school and all of her friends. She was only six years old, and she didn’t feel like she would ever belong in the new town, or fit into a new school. Instead, Lisa spent all her time in the woods.

She was sitting with her head on her knees one day sobbing inconsolably to herself and wishing she could go back to her old school. Deady Teddy heard the crying from his cabin in the woods and ran out to scare the little girl away. But when he saw Lisa curled up on the ground, something in his heart came alive. Something long forgotten.

In that moment, Teddy remembered how he used to make Matthew feel better when he was sad. He remembered how important it was to have a friend to pick you up when you are sad and tell you everything is going to be okay.

Ted brushed himself down and tried to make his fur look as presentable as possible. He put on his biggest bear smile and snuck up behind the little girl and tapped her on the shoulder. When Lisa turned around, she saw Ted on the ground smiling up at her with his arms outstretched. Lisa picked up Teddy and hugged him, and Teddy hugged her back until she felt happy once again.

Suddenly Lisa knew she would be okay in this new town now that she had her first friend. She looked down at Teddy.

“I will call you Egbert,” she said to him, and she hugged him again.

Teddy thought he quite liked the name Egbert. He knew in that moment he was going to make sure Lisa was always happy, and when she turned ten years old and was big enough and brave enough to tackle the world without him, he would find another little boy or little girl and look after them. After all, that is what all good teddies do.

The End.

A Busy Day

Once upon a time, my little brother Roman was playing with a toy dog. He took him for a walk in the park. It was a big park with lots of trees. The dog was running around.

After the dog had run around, they went home and Roman gave the dog a bone. When the dog had eaten the bone, he had a nap in his nice soft bed.

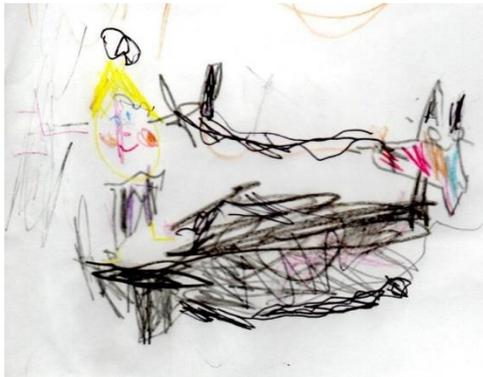

While he was asleep, the dog had a lovely dream about his dog friends playing with him. When he woke up, he and Roman played together. They had a great game of catch in the back garden.

The Weather was nice and warm, so they decided to go for a swim in the pool.

After being so busy they were really hungry. So, Roman had a banana flavoured lollipop and the dog had a chocolate flavoured lollipop.

They had had a busy day and were so tired they decided to go to bed.

I was born in February in the year 2018. I can't remember much from when I was little but I do remember some things.

But, one day, my heart left. Yes, it went on a train, on a plane and onto a boat. I really, really missed it. Like I said, I loved my heart more than anyone else so I'm super-duper sad.

I was a cute little toddler when it happened. I only had my parents with me when I was a baby so I felt alone and that my heart was my only friend.

Now I'm happy because she is coming back.

"My heart's coming back!" I shouted over the street.

"She's causing trouble, why do you even like her anyways?" everyone said.

I cried and went inside my house. While I was crying someone was knocking on the door. I told them to ring the doorbell, so they did. I answered the door and went outside to see my heart waiting for me.

I was so happy I shouted "YAY!"

Spongewizard and the Old Hall

Spongewizard spent his days and nights in the Old Hall in the little town of Gainsborough. The hall was a rather marvellous place with tall wooden ceilings and wonky wooden floors. Spongewizard liked to make warm vegetable broth at night on the big kitchen stove, and he would eat the broth in the highest room in the hall where he could look out over the little green.

The thing is, nobody knew about Spongewizard, or the fact that he lived in the hall under the stairs and considered it his duty to look after the place.

One day, lots of children from Parish Church School descended on the hall for a writing course. Spongewizard listened intently to their stories and loved the ones about chicken nuggets and runaway pizzas. He listened to stories about dogs and teddies and even one about a wizard!

‘The children are very good at making up stories,’ he thought to himself.

That night, when the children had returned home, Spongewizard decided to write his own story about looking after the Old Hall. When he had finished, he left the story in the room where the children would return the following morning.

‘I hope they like it,’ the wizard said to himself as he went to sleep that night.

The next day, all of the children found the story and read it out loud. It was all about keeping things tidy and caring about things. It was also about caring for your family and friends and even strangers. The children loved the story and set about that day creating ones of their own. They got themselves into teams and decided that each team would write a bit of the story.

Thanks to wise old Spongewizard who lived under the stairs in the Old Hall, the children decided to write a story about looking after the world and keeping everyone in the world safe. They read the story out loud with big smiles on their faces. As Spongewizard listened from his hiding place under the stairs, he thought to himself what wonderful children these were to care so much.

“I do believe,” he said out loud, “that the world will be fine with children like these looking after things.”

“I will never give up or the kids will be angry”.

One bright sunny morning Joe went to wake up Rebecca:

“Wakey, Wakey!”

“What Joe? I’m tired,” said Rebecca.

“Fine,” said Joe.

Joe was on his way to wake up his Mum and Dad when he found a letter. It said:

‘Dear Joe, you can get £1,000,000 if you go into space and find the secret planet. Good luck’. It was signed by an Alien.

“Wow,” said Joe, I’d better wake up Mum and Dad.

He jumped on their bed shouting “Mum! Dad!”.

Rebecca came in saying:

“What’s all this noise?”

“Rebecca, Rebecca,” said Joe, “I found this note, look.”

“Wow” said Rebecca reading it, “Let’s go wake up Mum, Dad and the dog.

Chapter 2: Splash and Splosh.

“Mum, Dad,” they both shouted.

“They’re not listening,” said Joe.

“Let’s go wake up the dog,” said Rebecca.

They went downstairs.

“Ben,” said Joe.

“Woof, woof,” said Ben.

“Help us to wake up Polly so she can wake up Mum and Dad,” said Rebecca.

Ben ran outside. Splash Splosh! Ben was in a muddy puddle.

“No Ben, wake up Polly” said Joe and Rebecca started chasing after Ben

Chapter 3: Let’s Go

Ben went to he dining room to wake up Polly.

“Woof, Woof,” barked Ben.

“Squark, Squark” shrieked Polly.

Mum and Dad woke up.

“What’s all this noise?” shouted Frannie.

“School tomorrow, you excited?” said Joe

“Not really” said Rebecca, “now let’s tell Mum and Dad.

“No, let’s go out and find the rocket station. I have got a map. Let’s go!”

“OK,” said Rebecca but she sounded worried, “what if we get lost?”

“No time to fuss Rebecca, now let’s go”.

“OK” said Rebecca again.

Chapter 4: Let’s Fix It.

“Almost there Rebecca,” said Joe, “We are here now, let’s fix the rocket”.

“OK” said Rebecca.

“Done, let’s hop on,” said Joe.

“Wait, what about our space clothes and Mum and Dad?” said Rebecca.

“It’s getting dark, we will have to miss school tomorrow. I have the clothes and forget about Mum and Dad, they’re fine.”

“Yay, no school,” said Rebecca.

Just then Joe found another note, it said:

“Dear Joe, please, help me. I’ve been stuck in jail by the Bears.” Signed: The Alien.

“Oh no, Let’s go!” said Joe.

“Are we in space? What are we doing here, oh well, let’s go,” said Polly.

Let’s save the Alien now! GET THE BEARS.”

They all started fighting and Rebecca fell.

“NOOOOO! Rebecca!” shouted Joe.

“The Bears ran away.”

“We must save Rebecca and the Alien,” said Joe.

Chapter 5: Save Her!

One bear remained who was guarding the Alien.

“Alien, where’s my money?” he growled.

“Save your sister first,” the Alien shouted to Joe.

Joe had a jet pack and he rushed down to save Rebecca,

“Got you” he shouted. He picked her up and grabbed some money and flew back to where the Alien was still held captive.

“Have you got the money?” asked the Alien.

“Yes, said Joe” and the bear took it and ran away.

“Thank you, Joe,” said the Alien.

“Bye, Bye.”

Chapter 6: Home

“Look Rebecca,” said Joe, pointing towards their house as they flew low over it, “finally we are home.”

“Mum, Dad look” he said, pointing to his jet pack.

“Wow, how did you get that?” asked Mum and Dad together.

“Well, it’s a long story.”

The Treasure Island

Chapter 1

One day we went for a walk and we found a map. On the map was written, 'How to find the Treasure.'

We went to the car to drive to where the treasure was. Connolly fell asleep but Isaac didn't as he was excited by the thought of finding treasure.

When we got lost, we checked the directions on the map. We drove along a track that was so bumpy Bob nearly lost his teeth.

Chapter 2

Connolly woke up and asked Dolly how many more hours we would need to drive.

"We have 4 hours left," said Dolly.

Bob looked out of the window, it was windy.

Isaac was bored.

“Do you want to play I Spy?” he asked Dolly.

Dolly said, “No.”

Bob needed to go to the toilet.

Dolly sang while she drove, he was singing something from TikTok.

“How many hours now?” asked Connolly.

“Three,” said Dolly.

Chapter 3

Dolly was getting tired driving but Dolly never gives up.

We found ourselves on a bridge and we could see the sky.

We drove and drove and, when we checked the map, we turned to the right but Bob said we should go to the left.

Connolly said:

“No, go forward.”

We were confused and Dolly was getting more tired.

Chapter 4

We were hungry so we stopped at a KFC. We went in and used iPads to order chicken, rice and coke. We were full.

We felt better and went back to the car.

“We have 2 hours left,” said Dolly.

She decided to put some music on to calm everyone down, especially Bob. Now he was chilled.

Will they ever get to the treasure?.....

Her friend, Mona, asked why and Mia explained about the shadow monster.

Her friend didn't believe her, but Mia begged and swore it was true.

So, they decided to go back to Mia's house together.

Chapter 2

When they got to Mia's house, they saw the shadow monster and they shot and shot and shot at it but it did nothing.

They tried shooting some more but it still had no effect.

Chapter 3

They went to the missile.

"What's happening?" asked Mia.

"I'm going to launch the missile" replied Mona as she aimed it towards the monster.

They started to count down:

"5,4,3,2,1 launch!!!!!"

There was a big explosion and they went to see if it had killed the monster but it was still alive!! It was weakened.

They tried shooting it again, but it still managed to kill Mona and Mia. Another friend called the police. The police had to use all their powers to finally kill the monster.

She tried to run away but she tripped over and fell. She tried to get to the phone, but the phone wasn't working.

Miss Johnson heard a noise behind her and turned around. She saw a huge grey ghost. She screamed and froze in fear. Then she tried to run to the kitchen but the door was locked. All of a sudden, the ghost started to cry. Miss Johnson asked him what was wrong.

Sindy struggled and shouted for help but the fishermen couldn't hear her. So, she called for her best friend, Sammy the cat.

Sammy distracted the fishermen who were amazed that she could speak. She told them that they had caught her friend.

The fishermen didn't want to release Sindy because they thought that catching a mermaid would make them rich and famous.

So, Sammy came up with another plan. She miaowed and whinged that she was hungry until eventually they gave her some fish to eat.

Whilst the fishermen were distracted, Sindy managed to break free and swim to safety.

Later, she came to shore and told Sammy the Cat:

“Thank you for saving me, I will catch you as many fish as you like forever.”

Portal.

The portal went straight to the beach which was 5 hours drive away from my house.

Chapter 2

I entered the portal and arrived at the beach with a swimming costume. I saw the portal change into shells, sand and spades.

I looked at the portal and stepped back in shock. Then I looked at the portal to see if it was real and stepped back into it.

As I stepped back in, I saw my room with roses on the floor.

This was real...

Chapter 3

I rang my parents and said:

“Mum, I’ve got a weird portal in my back yard. Come round quick because it will disappear.”

But before you know it, it had disappeared.

Mum said:

“You are grounded until you learn to stop lying.”

A Day at School

Chapter 1

One day at school Peter and Joe were playing outside. George was sad so he sat on a bench and cried. Peter came up to George and said:

“Are you OK George?”

“No,” said George.

“Well, I can fix that,” said Peter.

“How?” asked George.

“Let me just show you,” said Peter, “here we are.”

“Wow!” said George, “who is that?”

“I am Ellie” and “I am Oliver,” said the people George hadn’t seen before.

“There is more to come,” said Peter, “come with me.”

Chapter 2

“This is Joe,” said Peter.

Well, he is a bit messy,” said George.

“He is, but he is an artist,” said Ellie.

“Hello George,” said Joe.

“WEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEE!”

“What is that?” said George.

“He is Blake,” said Joe.

“Yes, Yes, I am Blake, the best guy in the school.”

“Is he really the best gut in the school?” asked George.

“Well, no, but he thinks he is,” said Peter.

There are 5 people in the crew now.

“So, who is next?” asked George.

Chapter 3

“Here is Keerthik, said Peter.

“Keerthik, Keerthik,” said Oliver.

“Boo! AAAAAAAA!”

“Oh, that stupid kid, he’s always making us jump,” said Ellie.

“Hello,” said Blake.

“Why are you so sad, Blake?” said Keerthik.

“Because of you, Keerthik,” said Blake.

“Me, why?” said Keerthik, “anyway, if you talk to me like that again you will definitely not be happy!”

Chapter 4

“Let’s just go back to the lab,” said Oliver.

“But first let’s look at this ball,” said Blake.

“No, do not open that,” said Peter.

But there was a click and:

“AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA,” they all shouted, “where are we?”

“I told you not to open the ball,” said Peter.

“Who is that?” asked Blake.

“Hello, I am Om.”

“Hello Om, how did you get here?” asked George

“I opened this ball and then I fell,” said Om.

“That is the same way we fell,” said Ellie.

“What is this place?” asked Blake.

“I don’t know,” said Peter.

Chapter 5

“So, what do we do now?” said Ellie.

“I say we go explore,” said George.

“I say no, as there are monsters in this house,” said Peter.

“What is that in the room?” asked George hearing a strange sound.

“We need to hide in the wardrobes,” said Peter.

“Oh, I don’t need to because I am Oliver!”

“OK, but you will just die if you don’t hide,” said George.

“AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA!” Oliver screamed.

“Oh, he died,” said Blake.

Chapter 6

“OK, we need to get moving or we will die too,” said Peter.

“But what about Oliver?” asked Ellie.

“He is dead,” said Peter, “but be quiet as if you scream the monsters might get you,” said Blake, but it was too late.

“What is that in the sink?” said George.

“That’s what happens when you scream,” said Peter. Now Ellie was dead too.

Chapter 7

“What is that on the wall?” asked Joe.

“That is an eye squirter. It will not get you if you do not look at it,” replied Peter.

But then:

“AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA!”

“Who just died?”

“That was Om,” said George.

Chapter 8

So, three people had died and their numbers were going down. Suddenly,

“AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA!”

“Oh dear,” said Keerthik, “that’s Joe and Blake dead now.”
“There are only 3 of us now so we must be careful,” said George.

Chapter 9

“Keep safe,” said Peter. If you see anything purple just run.”

“I can see purple,” said George.

“Run then, it’s the killer bunny.”

They ran but the bunny chased them for 2 days and one day it caught and ate Keerthik.

“Now there are just 2 of us,” said George.

Chapter 10

“We must live,” said Peter.

“To do that we must find the ball,” said George, “look out Peter, there’s the killer bunny again.”

“Everyone run,” said Peter. Then, “all the monsters are coming but I’ve found the ball.”

They kept running and opened the ball and, suddenly, found themselves safe and alive back home.

Sammi the Spider

Sammi was a girl spider who lived inside a chimney of the Old Hall in the little town of Gainsborough. Sammi loved her home and would often watch the visitors who would visit the hall with their families. Sammi lived with her own spider family who she loved dearly. It was a good life with lots of flies to catch and webs to make.

One Night Sammi was woken by a terrible crashing sound coming from the main hall.

‘What can that be?’ she wondered.

Sammi crept out into the darkness to investigate. To her surprise she saw a giant robot lizard crawling along the wall. The lizard was munching at the beams that supported the roof of the Old Hall and Sammi knew she had to stop him before he destroyed her precious home. Sammi was too small and fragile to battle such a fearsome creature, but Sammi had a secret she had never told to anybody, not even her family.

When the moon is full Sammi turns into a girl. She is ten years old and very tall for her age. She has silver hair and bright blue eyes! Sammi runs and plays in the Old Hall when she is a girl, and she loves investigating all of the rooms and the old kitchen and pantry. Being a girl is fun when you spend most of your days as a spider but, overall, Sammi preferred being a spider with her family.

Sammi returned to her home in the chimney and counted the days until the next full moon. It was very difficult to be patient because she could hear the nasty robot lizard munching and chomping on the poor Old Hall.

'I will make that pesky robot regret his actions,' she promised herself each night as she curled up in her little web.

Finally, the night arrived and Sammi stepped into the light of the full moon. With a whooshing sound and a puff of purple smoke she magically transformed into Sammi the girl.

Sammi rushed through the hall towards the sound of the evil robot still munching on her precious Old Hall. Auntie Liv was working late that night and swore she caught a glimpse of the Grey Lady. Sami had been mistaken for the famous old ghost many times due to her silver hair, but she didn't mind as she liked the idea of being a ghost and a girl.

Sammi ran towards the lizard preparing to do battle with all her might. But when Sammi reached the lizard, she realised he was only the size of the palm of her hand. Like a little beetle!

'How funny,' she thought to herself, 'he must have seemed so big because I am such a little spider most of the time.'

Sammi made a little nest in the chimney and filled the nest with wood chippings and brick dust for the little lizard to eat. She stroked his little head and made sure he was comfortable.

“You can live here in the chimney with my family and me,” she told the little lizard, “but when you seem big to me tomorrow when I am just a spider, you must behave.”

The little lizard winked up at Sammi as he munched on his wood chippings, and Sammi knew they were all going to be very happy together.

“Next time it is a full moon, you can watch me pretend to be the Grey Lady of the Old Hall.”

Sammi and her family and the robot lizard still live in the chimney of the Old Hall to this very day, and Sammi still pretends to be the Grey Lady every time the moon is full.
